SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

John Griffin was over Saturday night visiting with his mother, Mrs S W Gaines.

Clifford Griffin drove over to Stayton Saturday with a variety of fruit from the Santiam Farm for his sisters Mrs Jennie Lovejoy and Mrs Belle Alvord, who are running the Cottage hotel with good patronage.

Thomas Small and family drove to John Miller's on the North Santiam Saturday night.

The McMinville fire association agent Mr Kirkpatrick of Lebanon was through here Friday writing insurance.

The Watkins medicine agent who sells the best of most all kinds of medicines, was here Saturday.

A drove of some 75 head of 2-year-old cattle, mostly Herefords, and none deformed, passed through here, bound for Eastern Oregon. No telling where they came from.

Mrs M C Gaines is now nicely improving since changing medicine.

The Santiam Farm is now having Newton Crabtree dry his logans and currants, and 90 gallons were put in the dryer Saturday and dried out fine by Monday noon, when another lot was put in.

The farmers union met Sunday at the Bohemian hall with a full house and a new class of members, with promises enough to make up to 100 soon. Mr Rykes the organizer of Pendleton will be down with us the Fourth to lecture on the good of the farmers union and organize locals at Shelburn, Crabtree and Jordan to join us on the Fourth.

Our road boss is doing some good grading on the Richardson lane, making ditches on each side with road slips and polishing up with the engine and grader with the intention of graveling as much as possible.

The recent rains have put a scare into some farmers who have their clover hay cut as it is poor stuff to turn rain only from the outside of a cock to the inside.

Mrs Smith and Mrs Turner drove up to Providence Sunday for a little outing and to attend church.
