

LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

Grandma Poindexter and daughter Mrs. Anna Gaines of St. Johns came up last week to visit with relatives and old time friends of these parts and attended our union celebration.

Our celebration was a very enjoyable one to all who did not expect to find one equal to a heaven on earth, or to equal Portland, as we had fine order and speaking by Mr. Sykes the union organizer.

Hay harvest is now in full blast with everybody in the field late and early as the hay is a little over ripe and all fear a July rain, which is not an unusual thing when there is lots of hay down.

Quite a number of our neighbors celebrated at Albany.

David Horsburgh made a flying trip to Salem Thursday on very important business, returning home at 2 a. m.

Himilaya berries now ripe—I wish all to try them. Once canned you will can no other as they are superior to any I have ever used, 20c per gallon. All other kinds, loganberries, red and black raspberries, gooseberries and currants, all 10c. Rhubarb galore, 1c a lb. Come soon. S. W. Gaines.

Our farmers union met Sunday with a fair attendance and 20 new members. Our state organizer was with us and was delighted with our success in business and wonderful increase of members. He showed us the wonderful increase in the past four years.

M. C. Gaines was boring with a 9-inch augur Sunday as he had nine men hauling in hay so as to avoid the rush of harvest. He cut a great deal of his hay after night so as to avoid the flies and save the wear and tear of his bed clothes. His good wife is nicely improving.

Our road boss has completed over a mile of crushed rock on the road leading toward Crabtree. He also has graded a mile and a half of the Richardson road from the Scio-Lebanon road with a slip scraper and will polish it up with the road grader and engine. The road will be a credit to this section as it has always been one of the worst in the county.

Miss Ruby Crumes who has been in Albany the past month visiting with her grandmother Mrs. John Garland, returned home Sunday.

PIE EATER.

Cure of Indigestion

Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes, "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlains tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.
