LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

UPPER SANTIAM EVENTS

What is a "Georgia buggy?"

I am pleased to read of mining prosperity in the Elkhorn country. Some day there will be a stampede to that region. The minerals are there.

F E Smith and Mrs Kittie Perdue were married recently. Mrs Perdue was raised on her father's farm near Mill City.

Ike Butler and wife and his sister Agnes and husband are up visiting the scenes of childhood days. Their father Commissioner Butler owned one of the best farms in this section but sold and moved to Albany. Mrs Butler is here for her health.

Mr Grey Supt of bridge building for the C & E is here with a crew of men building side tracks.

Gospel tent meetings are running evenings in Mill City.

The Hammond Co own and run the bakery and meat shop now.

Mrs Shroeder of Gates motored to Lebanon to see Dr Jones, cancer specialist. She received disquieting information that gives her family and friends much concern. She has been the leader in social work and entertainment for many years. It is to be hoped that a cure may be effected.

Fine specimens of ore are being brought out from Quartzville nowadays.

The fruit crop is almost a failure here.

Am pleased to hear of the improvements in Scio.

Three business concerns have closed out recently. The bakery and pool room in Mill City and Dike Bros mercantile establishment of Gates. The Dikes sold to A B Horner across the street.

The picnic at Lyons on the 4th was pronounced a success.

Ernest Welch of Gates has secured a fine job as engineer at St Helens.

A neighbor going along the road noticed bees going in and out of a dead snag on the J R Geddes ranch. The question is, who owns the bees and the honey?

Mill City can be called smoky city. The smoke from the consumer, the switching engine of the C & E and the engines of the mill make it cloudy at times.

Newt Lewis and John Schulte are shipping tons of moss.

H A Grafe of Gates, an old time neighbor of your scribe, 50 years ago in Minnesota, died the first of July. He had returned from Sunday school and almost immediately on entering the house fell to the floor. He never recovered from the paralytic stroke. Mr Grafe served as county surveyor, senator, and held local positions in Minnesota. He was a school teacher and singing teacher, and had been accustomed to drilling the young people in singing each Sunday. A good citizen and one full of good deeds is no more.

NICK.

Cured of Indigestion

Mrs Sadie P Clawson, Indiana, Pa, was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes, "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlains tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.
