SHELBY ITEMS

Mr and Mrs Lawrence Van Blaricom of Newberg accompanied by their son Elgin and wife, motored over here Sunday and shook hands with old time acquaintances. Mr Van Blaricom was a former merchant of this place.

Frank Pietrok began threshing Tuesday.

Mr and Mrs A P Russell of Macleay visited over Sunday with friends and relatives here.

A P Hirons and family visited with Mr Finley and family of Richardson's Gap Sunday.

Miss Iva Shilling is at home for a few weeks.

Mr and Mrs Ben Gooch of Mt Angel spent Sunday with relatives here.

John Bounds has been ill for several days.

James Smith and wife returned the last of the week from a several weeks' trip up in the mountains with relatives.

Miss Grace French returned the last of the week from Jefferson where she has been working for some time.

Mr Riggin is boarding with his cousin, Mrs Churchill and working on the railroad.

Delmer Churchill returned the last of the week from Tillamook county where he spent the past four weeks with his brother, Walter.

Mr Cavett of Crabtree expects to move here in a couple of weeks.

Jim Trollinger and family drove up to see her brother, Mr Finley and family Sunday.

Mrs Rosa Miller is still seriously ill.

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

Mr. Editor: The article published July 23 concerning the farmer boosting the mail order houses, telling how he reduced the value of his place, is a cork and bull story, patched up and written by some sore back merchant to down the parcel post, as they see they cannot fleece all the fools even if they can a few. Farmers are learning to look after their own interests and they will produce just the same. The value of the farm cuts no figure in making a living, only adds enormous taxes to support men too lazy to work.

Dr. Brown, wife and two children returned home Saturday noon.

William Smith and wife were visiting Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. Thomas of Stayton, Saturday and Sunday.

A. L. Sutherland had an ice cream social Sunday with a house full music and a fine time.

Vick Johnson of Linnhaven fruit farm and M. C. Gaines were over at the Santiam farm Sunday on business.

Mrs. Ida Graham and daughter Alice returned Sunday to her father, Mr. C.

Gaines, after visiting her brother.

Mr. Look has erected a new barn which adds to the convenience of his farm.

The new crushed rock road to Crabtree is simply grand.

Geo. Bilyue is starting his concrete cellar and foundation for his new residence.

Mrs. George Wiltfong of Oxnard, Cal., sent Mrs. Melba Bilyue a box of the finest lemons I ever saw. So she now enjoys drinking lemonade from the fountain head.

The steam threshers are now blowing their whistles in every direction, reminding us of hard hot work.

A great deal of complaint is heard about the clover worm destroying the clover on account of the dry hot weather.

Mrs. Myrtle Crabtree of Scio is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Clara Griffin, and helping to cook for the baler hands.

PIE EATER.

Cured of Indigestion

Mrs Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa, was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes, "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.
