Possibly About You

Bring your fresh vegetables to the Scio Hotel.

Chas Compton of Crabtree was a Scio shopper Monday.

Mrs Guy Ficklin of Albany is visiting this week at the home of her sister, Mrs Walter Bilyeu.

Hop baskets at Morrison's Hardware. Leave your order early as last year I was unable to fill the demand.

Mr and Mrs A E Randall and Miss Daisy Buckner returned home Tuesday evening from a months' outing at London Springs. They report an enjoyable time and their appearance bears out the statement.

Just remember that the News office sells typewriter ribbons and carbon paper cheaper than anyone else in Linn county.

Mrs Maud Holland and sons returned to their home at Albany Tuesday after visiting several weeks with relatives here.

Too much trouble to go to church and get dinner the same day? Get Sunday dinner at the Scio Hotel.

Mr and Mrs Jefferson Myers of Portland were over Sunday visitors at the home of his brother, E D Myers.

Mrs Nelle Gunsauls of Lebanon visited at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs J A Bilyeu the latter part of the week.

Mr and Mrs C H Wain and daughter Ila moved the last of the week to Junction City where they expect to make their future home. Their Scio friends hate to see them leave here, but wish them every measure of success in their new home.

Mr and Mrs W D West, formerly of Silver Lake, came in the last of the week for a visit at the home of the latter's brother, E D Myers. They expect to locate somewhere in the valley, but have not decided on a location as yet. Mr West is an old acquaintance of the writer at Silver Lake a few years ago and has been in living over old times this week.

Large range given away on Saturday, October 17. With every piece of Vinton granite ware purchased you will get a number which has a corresponding number. You retain one number, we keep the other, and on October 17 the one having the right number will get the Range free. Range and granite ware are now in Morrison's front window. This granite ware is something new and we are giving away the range simply to advertise the ware. You are just as apt to get the range with a small piece of granite ware as with a large one. —N I Morrison.

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION EXPIRES on the date stamped in the space below. To those who pay promptly in advance the subscription price is $1.25 per year. The price is $1.50 if paid at end of year. The paper is not sent to subscribers who are more than one year in arrears.

Church Notes

Services at Kingston Church of Christ Sunday, August 16, were well attended and appreciated by all both morning and evening.

The contest was inaugurated Sunday between Scio Union Sunday School and Kingston Christian Sunday school, with honors for the day about even, each school having something over 1000 points. The contest is on for 12 Sundays and the winner will be presented with a large Sunday School pennant. Boost for your school.

The members of the Kingston church, Sunday school and C E will come to Scio next Sunday in an auto truck and buggies and wagons to join in Sunday school, church and C E services here. At noon they, together with the members of Scio church will take their well filled baskets to some nice, grassy, shady spot and spread dinner and—well, you know what follows. Let the members turn out in force and give our visitors a hearty welcome.

Services next Sunday, August 23 at Church of Christ, morning subject, "What then will I do with Jesus who is called Christ." Sunday night, "The most demoralizing agency in the world." Hear this one and let's have the support of the members and all good people in town.

New Hotel for Scio

W E Brown informs the News that plans are on foot for building a strictly modern first-class hotel here. Mr Brown states that he is prepared to put up any sum up to $8,000 providing a like sum is subscribed by the business men of Scio, farmers, or anyone interested in the venture. He has interviewed a few of the merchants and finds them enthusiastic and he states that anyone interested need not wait to be approached on the subject as he will be glad to talk it over at any time.

It is to be hoped that sufficient enthusiasm may be aroused to put the venture through, as a first-class hotel would do more to boost the town than tons of attractive descriptive literature.
