EQUALIZATION NOTICE

The County Board of Equalization will meet at the Court House at Albany, Oregon, Monday September 14, 1914, and remain in session six days for the purpose of publicly examining the assessment roll and to correct errors in valuation, description or qualities of land, lots or other property.
All persons interested are hereby notified to appear at the appointed time and place and, if it shall appear to said Board that lands, lots, or other property be assessed twice, or assessed in the name or names of any person or persons not the owner thereof, or assessed under or beyond its value, or any lands, lots or other property not assessed, said Board will make the proper correction.
EARL L. FISHER,
County Assessor.

The Twenty Year Test

"Some 20 years ago I used Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy" writes Geo W Brock, publisher of the Enterprise, Aberdeen, Md. "I discovered that it was a quick and safe cure for diarrhoea. Since then no one can sell me anything said to be 'just as good.' During all these years I have used it and recommended it many times and it has never disappointed anyone." For sale by all dealers.

acted business in Scio Tuesday.

THE SANTIAM NEWS' BIGGEST OFFER

$1.25—Our Paper and Any One of These Clubs—$1.25

SEVERAL leading publishers of magazines have joined with us in one of the greatest subscription bargains offers ever put out in this country. Through this combination everybody will be able to get a yearly subscription to three magazines in combination with our weekly paper at practically the price of our paper alone. In this list you will find forty different periodicals formed into thirty-five different clubs. Each club has 3 magazines, except one Special Club which has four magazines; some of these magazines sell for as much as $1 a year. They are all good and cover a large variety of choice reading matter, including History, Music, Religion, Education, Fashions, Fancy Needlework, Illustrated Current Events, Home Decorations, Fiction, Literature, Drama, Art, Science, Inventions, General Farming, Dairy Farming, Live Stock, Vegetables, Fruit and Poultry.

On account of the splendid contract we have made with the publishers of these magazines, we are able to give our readers a choice of any one of the clubs in combination with our paper one year for $1.25. Just 25c more than the price of our paper alone.
This offer is made to everybody. If you have never subscribed to our paper before, we ask you to take advantage of this offer.
If you are a subscriber to our paper we ask you to renew so that you too, may get 3 magazines extra. Look over the list and select the club you like best. Send your order today or give your order to our representative or call at our office when in town. If you are now a subscriber to any of these magazines and want to renew just send your order to us and we will have your subscription extended. If your subscription to our paper is past due, we advise you to pay up and take advantage of this bargain. If you are in the habit of buying your magazines through other channels, we ask you to justly compare our clubs and prices with that of any other offer you receive. You, no doubt, are now a subscriber to some of these periodicals. You can save money by sending your renewal order to us. Here is a chance to get your home paper and a yearly supply of good reading at a real bargain. If you want one or more of these magazines sent to different addresses, just mention it.

Attention Farmers—I have the agency for the well known line of Oliver machinery. I have a stock of Oliver plows, extras, shares, moldboards, land sider, beams, handles, joints, in fact anything in the line of Oliver goods. While I am not making any special sales on buggies, hacks, etc, I can furnish you 1 1-8 inch common 2 seat hacks for $65.00 and up, surreys at $95 up, 3 inch Mitchell gears $80.00.
The line of goods I handle is giving the best of satisfaction.
Some lines of goods are dear at any price. The above prices are regular. Some special prices are misleading. Sometimes it might be to your advantage to look around and get prices before you purchase elsewhere. —N I Morris-son, Scio, Oregon.

Saved by a Smile.
"Yes, I had a narrow escape once.
It was in Calcutta when the plague was raging—many years ago, when Europeans had little better chance than the natives. The hospitals were full to overflowing, and I, with many others, was lying in a large shed put up for the purpose.
Some of the poor chaps were dead, and I pretty near it, when a man came around with one of the doctors to measure the bodies, and I learned from their talk that they counted me already among the corpses. I was too far gone to cry out. I could not move; I could not even open my eyes."
"What did you do?"
"Oh, I just smiled!"—Westminster Gazette.

Cheering the Prisoner.
In "My Varied Life" Mr. F. C.
Phillips tells some stories of incidents in assize courts.
Mr. Baron Martin, at the Guild-ford assizes, was trying a man for murder, and he summed up the jury dead against the prisoner.
The jury, however, too a merciful view of the case and returned a verdict of manslaughter. Baron Martin was always very brief in his sentences and never attempted to harrow a prisoner's feelings.
"Prisoner at the bar," said the old Scotsman, "you're the luckiest man I ever came across. Tak' penal servitude for life."
