

The Santiam News.

VOL. XVIII

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1914.

NO. 11

EIGHTH ANNUAL LINN COUNTY FAIR BEST EVER HELD

Baby Show, Aeroplane, Races and Fine Exhibits Draw Big Crowds

The Linn County Fair closed last Friday evening after a successful three days with good attendance and splendid exhibits in all lines. The premium list is being prepared and will be published in these columns as soon as possible.

G W Stromer of Tacoma flew over from Albany Thursday in his large tractor biplane and made a graceful landing in front of the grand stand, and was to have made a return trip Friday afternoon, but his machine did not rise quick enough and crashed into the fence surrounding the race course, demolishing the framework. The engine was removed from the tractor Saturday and the rest of the machine left here as a souvenir of the occasion.

The following awards were made in the eugenic contest in which forty-eight babies were entered:

Boys 6 to 12 months—Richard Chrz, first, 98.8; Robert C Button second, 98.7; Hollis Titus, third, 98.3; Frank McDonald, fourth, 97.9.

Twelve to 24 months—Wilson A Bauman, first, 99.3; Warren C Gill, second, 99.2; Langford D Hook, third, 98.1; Francis M Smith, fourth, 95.0.

Twenty-four to 36 months—Gordon W Gilkey, first, 98.9; Leroy F Arnold, second, 98.1; Byron L McDonald, third, 96.5.

Girls 6 to 12 months—Vera M Carson, first, 99.1; Alma A Philippi, second, 98.8; Violet Garland third, 97.0; Catherine A Powell, fourth, 96.8.

Twelve to 24 months—Helen C Miller, first, 98.6; Gloria Wesely, second, 98.3; Ardith L Shelton, third, 98.1; Viasta Krummel, fourth, 87.5.

Twenty-four to 36 months—Eleanor Miller, first, 96.7; Gladys E Shelton, second, 96.2.

Grand champions—Boy, Wilson A Bauman, 99.3; Girl, Vera M Carson, 99.1.

Ed Wesely informs the News that the restaurant conducted by him and J F Kukaeka at the fair last week brought in $460, which they consider was doing very well.

Oregon News Notes

Oregon Development News in Line of Industries, Payrolls, and Products of Labor and Enterprise.

Quarterly payment of taxes is a popular movement that would relieve industries in a practical way.

The new Pendleton hotel costing $130,000 has been opened to the public.

The $75,000 rock crushing plant of the Cascade Construction Co at Marion has begun operation with a payroll of 100 men at $6,000 per month. It is expected to distribute 600,000 yards of crushed rock on the S P Co. tracks in Oregon.

Cyanide jumping from 19 to 75c a pound on account of the war is hampering the mining industry in Baker county.

The new Portland postoffice will have two floors devoted to mail work, and seven floors of offices for the army of federal officials and commissioners at Portland.

Albany is calling for bids for a new $50,000 high school.

Portland bankers recently returned from the bankers conference at Washington D C, state that eastern factories are running night and day to fill orders brought about by the European war.

The Heppner Milling Co distributes annually $10,000 in wages.

Pilot Rock has great need of more dwellings.

Gresham will soon have a new cannery.

Work on the Sutherlin Coos Bay & Eastern railroad is being pushed rapidly.

Joe Knowles got what he went after—publicity, the greatest Oregon product.

Prineville needs more modern houses.

The Willamette Pacific expects to have rails to Tidewater before the rainy season sets in.

The Sutherlin Railroad has been granted a franchise on Sutherlin streets.

The Pacific Coast Condensed Milk Co will immediately proceed to enlarge its Hillsboro plant to meet the demands of the constantly increasing offerings of milk. The new building will be of concrete 140 x 140 and when completed will give the local plant a capacity of 200,000 pounds a day.

During harvest season to save crops farmers must work 12 to 14 hours. What will an eight-hour law do to the farming industry?

The Standard Oil Co is preparing to erect supply tanks at Lebanon, making this point the distributing center for that part of the county.

The Lebanon Lumber Co will soon begin to ship logs to their mill at that town and the mill will be run to capacity.

Wm Kyle & Sons Co. salmon cannery at Florence has started operation and will distribute $20,000 to the workers during the season.

Portland will soon erect another 24 classroom school at a cost of $160,000.

The Marion county court house is to have a new heating plant installed by T M Barr of Salem.

The enactment of nearly thirty new laws on the ballot this year would be an industry at the expense of all other industries, says the Oregon Manufacturer.

Improved Farms For Sale

484, 314, 262, 238, 180 and 1184 acre tracts; the price of these farms runs from $50 to $65 per acre with terms. Some of them are well improved and are adapted to grain raising, stock and dairying, and are situated within 10 miles of Scio. Call on R. Shelton, Scio, Oregon.

COLLEGE OR BUSINESS course—Albany College can furnish a dozen girls opportunity to earn room and board while taking a literary, business or musical course at the college. Superior instruction. Address H M Crooks, President. 11-2t

For Sale—A $1,200 threshing machine and 12 horse power gasoline engine with wood cutting attachment. Almost new; price $500. at Trappist Monastery, Jordan. 11-4t

Gold watch and fob lost on fair grounds. Return to Geo. Morgan and receive reward.

Found—A pair of glasses in case on fair grounds. Owner call at this office, pay for this notice and take property.

Possibly About You

Bring your fresh vegetables to the Scio Hotel.

Onions for sale. Better get your winter's supply now as they are going like hot cakes.—Truman Lukenbach.

F M Shores of Happy Home was a Scio fair visitor last week.

Miss Ruth Evans of Salem attended the Fair here Thursday and Friday and visited with friends.

Call at the People's Store and see the valuable premiums given free with cash purchases.

Miss Dolly Daley of Lebanon visited home folks and attended the Linn county fair last week.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding Rings.—F M French & Son, Albany, Oregon.

E D Alexander of Stayton attended the fair here last Thursday, and dropped in at the News office for a chat as he is an old time newspaper man.

I am in the market for fat live stock, also stock hogs and milk cows on orders. For any information call Scio telephone central.—Thos. Large.

Scio has been well represented at the state fair at Salem this week.

Loggers and Dry Sox shoes sold at the People's Store cheaper than elsewhere.

Miss Daisy Buckner took in the state fair at Salem Tuesday.

Get one of those warm, dressy Mackinaw coats at the People's Store for less than half what others charge.

Special Sunday dinners at the Scio Hotel.

There will be a business meeting at the Baptist church Saturday, Oct 3, at 2:30 p.m. All members are requested to be present.

Farmers attention! I am still handling the same high grade farm machinery and have also added the famous line of Oliver plows.—N I Morrison.

W E Brown attended the state fair Tuesday.

Tankage

I have just received a car of tankage and am ready to supply all who wish it as well as those who ordered in advance.

A J Shelton.

Too much trouble to go to church and get dinner the same day? Get Sunday dinner at the Scio Hotel.

Temperance Rally

A temperance committee from Albany will hold a meeting in the Baptist church at Scio on Tuesday evening, October 6, at 7:30. Good speakers, and a male quartette will be present. Everyone is invited to attend this meeting.

Picture Show Sunday Night

Why not spend Sunday evening at the picture show? First class films, good music, and admission price 15c and 10c. Show starts at 8:00 sharp.

Trespass notices, 5c each for sale at the News office.

Range given away on October 17, 1914, by N I Morrison. Every purchaser of a piece of the blue enamel ware is entitled to a numbered ticket. The one having the number corresponding to the one drawn out will get the large range free. Everyone is getting a piece of granite ware. If you want to get in, get busy as it is going fast.—N I Morrison.

Mr and Mrs Mylo Bartu left for Los Angeles, Calif, last week where the former has a position teaching manual training in a high school there. Mr Bartu is a graduate of the 1914 class of O A C.

Services at the Baptist church both morning and evening next Sunday by Rev F S Lawrence of Portland. All are invited to attend these services.

CH Wain of Junction City visited relatives here and attended the fair last week.

Forest Woodmansee left for Portland Tuesday where he will enter the North Pacific Dental College this week as a student, with a view of having a Dr. tacked in front of his name within the next few years.

A prohibition rally was held at Jordan last Sunday at which Pres Crooks of Albany College gave a stirring address. Music was furnished by a male quartette and an enthusiastic meeting is reported.

J A Bilyeu has been on the sick list this week, but his many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

V K Allison, who has been elected pastor of the Brownsville Christian church, was transacting business in Scio one day last week.

The Scio school is going along swimmingly under the efficient leadership of Prof Colvin and an able corps of teachers. The attendance was light until after the fair, but is picking up this week. Predictions are made for the best school in its history this winter.