VOL. XVIII

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1914.

NO. 12

Lyman W. Pomeroy

A pioneer of '53 has answered the call that comes to all sooner or later. Lyman Walker Pomeroy passed to the great beyond Saturday, Oct 3, from his home in Scio after a brief illness of a few hours.

Mr Pomeroy was born in Virginia April 22, 1833, and had reached the ripe old age of 81 years, five months and eleven days. He moved to Indiana with his parents when a boy of three years, and resided there until 1852 when he crossed the plains by ox team, settling at Salem. He helped to build one of the first buildings there, and while there in 1856, he joined the first Odd Fellows lodge organized in Oregon, Chemiketa No. 1 of Salem.

A few years later he took up a homestead near Providence. While there he was married to Almira Bealer. Later he moved to a farm three and one-half miles southwest of Scio where he continued to reside until 1904, when he moved into Scio, residing here until his death. He became a member of the Providence Baptist church many years ago.

Mr Pomeroy is survived by his wife, Mrs Almira Pomeroy and thirteen children: Orange Pomeroy of Kimberly, Idaho; Oscar, of near Lebanon; Eugene and Grover of Woodburn; Mrs Dora Bilyeu of Lebanon; Mrs Minnie Ferrell of McCloud, Cal; Mrs Elva Dallam of Portland; Mrs Clara Griffin and Mrs Emma Smail of Thomas; Mrs Amanda Shelton, Mrs Myrtle Crabtree, and Mrs Lulu Pope of Scio and Mrs Berta Miller of Turner. There are also a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Mr Pomeroy was taken sick about two o'clock Saturday morning and died about eight o'clock that morning. From the time he took sick he gave no evidence of pain or suffering.

Funeral services were held here in the Baptist church Monday, October 5, at 1 o'clock. Rev R F Jameson of Lebanon officiating. Interment was made in Franklin Butte cemetery, the burial services being conducted by the Odd Fellows. Odd Fellows were here from Lebanon, Albany and Jefferson. The floral offerings were many and most beautiful. Of the thirteen children, all were present except Orange Pomeroy, who was absent because of illness.

Resolutions

Whereas, Our beloved brother, L W Pomeroy, was on the 3rd day of October, 1914, by the decree of an overruling providence, called from his earthly suffering to a home where pain and sorrow are unknown and where the weary find rest,—be it therefore

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Pomeroy, the members of Dierdorff Lodge, No. 54, I O O F, fully recognize that they have lost one of their number, who was at all times imbued with the pure principles of the order, and whose life and conduct suffer no reproach to be on his character, either as an Odd Fellow, fellow citizen or husband and father.

Resolved, That the sincere and heartfelt sympathies of the members of this lodge be, and are hereby extended to the bereaved widow and family of our deceased brother, whose loss we, with them, deeply mourn.
