What Would you Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. When act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlains cough remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value. Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says, "Chamberlains cough remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it."
For sale by all dealers.

THE RURAL TEACHER

Bears Heavy Burden of Civilization.

By Peter Radford.
Lecturer National Farmers' Union.

With the new development of rural life, there comes the demand for increased educational facilities and the impulse of universal education which is sweeping the country calls for intelligent and consecrated leadership in our rural schools. It is upon the rural teacher that one of the heaviest burdens of civilization falls, for not only must he lay the foundation of education, but he must also instill into the pupils the real love for country life, which will hold him on the farm and help to stem the townward tide.

In the city, the teacher is a cog in the vast wheel of educational machinery; in the country he is the wheel.
It is he who must mold the character, inspire the ideals and shape the destiny of the farm boys and girls, and if he is fitted by nature for the task, not only will the results of his efforts be reflected in the pupils, but gradually the whole community will be leavened with a new ambition for progress.

He can organize around the school the main interests of the boys and girls and develop the impulse for cooperation, which in time will displace the old competitive individualism and make rural social life more congenial and satisfying. The possibilities for making the rural school the social and economic center of the community are almost endless, and the faculties of the rural teacher may have full play, for it will take all his time and ingenuity if he attains the full measure of success.

Must Be Community Leader.

A noted college professor recently said that three things are now required of a rural teacher. The first requirement is that he must be strong enough to establish himself as a leader in the community in which he lives and labors; second, that he must have a good grasp on the organization and management of the new and scientific farm school and, third, that he must show expert ability in dealing with the modern rural school curriculum.
If he lives up to the opportunities offered him as a rural leader, he will train boys and girls distinctly for rural life, not only by giving them the rudiments of agricultural training but by enabling them to see the attractive side of farm life, and to realize that it is a scientific business, and one of the most complex of all professions with opportunities as great as those of any other calling.

"School for Parents" Needed.

The duties of the rural teacher are more varied and complicated than those of the city teacher, and he sometimes has to include the parents in directing his efforts for the best results. In communities where the old or population is opposed to any departure of the younger generation from established customs in either social or economic life, their co-operation can often be secured by calling community meetings and instructing the parents on matters of community interest. It is related that a successful young teacher in a remote locality had weekly meetings attended by parents of his pupils, which finally evolved into a "school for parents" in which they were taught how to live a community life in its broadest and biggest sense.

Social Features Essential.

The successful rural school is the vital social and economic center of the community and the successful rural teacher is the one who realizes that the responsibility of training local leaders for the future devolves upon him. Organized play, inter-community athletics, community festivals, lyceum and debating clubs, Y.
M. C. A's, with occasional neighborhood entertainments, utilizing home talent, contests in cooking and various other phases of home economics, in corn and hog clubs and other agricultural activities are a few of the methods employed by the successful rural teacher in stimulating interest and enthusiasm while teaching them the fundamental principles of successful community life.

Farming is a business proposition and the farmer is the biggest business man in business.

Don't forget the faithful old friend —the horse—remember he is prone to become tired as well as yourself.

Some of the world's first gentlemen and scholars and patriots were farmers and today some of the world's best thought is given to farming.

FARMERS, BEWARE—TAKE CARE

The following letter is submitted to the voters of Oregon by the Hop Growers and Dealers Association on behalf of 1,400 farmers representing 25,000 acres of land devoted to the Hop Industry of Oregon:

For many years we have been engaged in the growing and marketing of Hops. One land is particularly suited for this purpose. Our work and our energy has for years been devoted to the development of this industry. The time has now come when you are being asked, by your VOTE, to ruin US.

It is urged that we can "use this land to raise something else." This may be true. How are we going to get along however while we are waiting to "raise" something else? YOU know that the hardest condition that a producer has to meet is the securing of a market for his product. How are we going to get along until we secure that market? Suppose that we should decide to raise apples, prunes or loganberries, etc.? You know the years it takes to develop them. How are we to get along in the meantime? You know that each of these products, and many others, are frequently a "glut" on the market. Suppose that we start to produce what you are producing. Then you will have more competitors—the market will be flooded—YOU will receive less for what you produce.

We fully realize that many sincere people favor State Wide Prohibition BELIEVING that it will be the means of correcting the "Liquor Habit." This has NOT PROVEN to be the case, for the reason that FIFTEEN States, after a full and fair trial ranging over a period of from one to fifty years have REJECTED IT.

Don't you feel that if State Wide Prohibition had been beneficial that those FIFTEEN States that had it would have kept it and not have REJECTED IT? It having been proved a FAILURE in those States how can it be a SUCCESS IN OREGON?

Thousands there are who favor Temperance but who hate the thought of Prohibition from a moral standpoint. Liquor far below the standard of whiskey is brewed and sold with deadly effect. Manhood and SELF RESPECT is weakened.

Now education is accomplishing the ultimate Temperance and licensed regulation of an open traffic is bringing about True Temperance whereas the history of Prohibition as a Theory APPLIED shows it has wrecked years of temperance advancement, driven the distribution of liquor "Under Cover" and secreted it from regulation and control by law.

Under our present "Local Option Laws" any community, that so desires, can stop the sale of liquor LOCALLY. The handling of this matter is in your hands LOCALLY. Under the proposed law it will be taken from your hands and administered by the State. Do you feel that the State will handle this matter more thoroughly than you can YOURSELVES?

It is claimed that the State will save money in the institutions for the Insane and Criminal if this measure goes into effect. Yet the Official United States Statistics show that the State of Kansas, that is now held up as an example for Oregon to follow, has more insane and criminals in its institutions than Oregon has, per capita.

It is claimed that this proposed law will improve economic conditions, yet the same Official United States Statistics show that the per capita wealth of Oregon is GREATER than that of Kansas.

Hundreds of stores will become vacant; thousands of men with families to support will be thrown out of their employment without compensation, and turned adrift in the sea of "unemployed" which is only too large now.

Do you feel that "times are a good" that you can afford to experiment and take this great revenue away from the State of Oregon?

Don't you feel that you have a big enough burden to bear now, and with the new National Tax Measure now being framed at Washington it will be HEAVIER still? *

Don't you feel that the FAIR way is to ENFORCE the laws we now have, which are fully ample in every way to govern the "Liquor Abuse," and NOT pass a law that will accomplish no good but will RUIN US?

We ask you to talk this matter over with your wife, or your friends or your neighbors—consider it fully and candidly—consider it in the light of "FAIR PLAY"—consider it in the light of a "SQUARE DEAL"—and then we ask you to go to the polls and do for us as we would for you under similar conditions, VOTE 333 X NO, and so save OUR interests from RUIN.

Remember the Local Option Laws will be swept away if Prohibition is voted but they will STAND AS THEY ARE if Prohibition is Defeated.

Very sincerely,

HOP GROWERS' AND DEALERS' ASSOCIATION OF OREGON.
