Prices Reasonable.

As it is about time to get your

Why Not Publish It?

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs Joseph Kallans, Peru, Ind, was troubled with belching, sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlains tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well."
For sale by all dealers.

"The Old Beast."

An old story concerning Lord Beaconsfield is worth repeating.
One day, while walking about his country place in the easy coat and general careless attire he liked to adopt when among his farmers, he encountered two women, strong partisans of Mr. Gladstone. Supposing him to be the keeper or gardener or something of that sort, they inquired if he would show them over the place. While they were walking about they overwhelmed him with questions as to the habits of the master of the manor. "Do you think you could manage to get us a sight of the old beast himself?" asked one of them. "Madam," replied Lord Beaconsfield, "the old beast has the honor to wait upon you now!" — London

Snakes in the South Sea Islands.

In many of the south sea islands the snake is often held to be sacred, as it is thought to be connected with a spirit. At Valuwa there are snakes which strangers are not allowed to see lest some misfortune should follow. Those that are held are not fed or worshiped, but such as are the familiars of individuals who know them receive sacrifices.
In the New Hebrides snakes are highly regarded. A native of Pen-tecosst island if he sees one in a sacred place or in a house will think that there is some reason for its appearing to him. He will pour over himself the juice of a young cocoa-nut and ever afterward expect to find the world go well with him through the influence of the spirit.

Yes, Williams, I'll Tell You Why I Won't Invest in Your Enterprise

YOU'RE located in the wrong town. Closed seventeen saloons last Spring, the first institutions to come across with their taxes. You voted yourselves out of those good funds, and what has it got you? Practically a dead town.

You tried to deprive men of their personal rights. You told 'em they couldn't drink beer, even moderately as they had been doing. Men who couldn't even get beer in respectable beer saloons, got unlimited quantities of cheap, stronger drinks in the countless blind pigs that your blue laws created.

Those orderly saloons were the Liberty Hall of many workmen who sought an hour's relaxation, amusement, fellowship. To them, they were what a club is to you and me. Naturally, denied the privilege of drinking an occasional glass, they skulked to the convenient speak-easies and became law breakers.

There you are, Williams. None of my money for a town that clamps down the lid—not on intemperance, but on business and sobriety.

A Congressional Blank

W C Hawley is a congressional blank filed away in the dusty archives of the national capitol and is used for reference whenever the "old guard" needs a reactionary vote. He has been card indexed and tagged. He is classified as harmless, but necessary. He has been taught to eat out of the horny hand of former Speaker Joe Cannon and is one of the few remaining cogs in the bent and broken wheel which was built under the Cannon-Payne regime. If he ever performed any real service to his constituents, they never heard of it.
If he ever made a brilliant speech it has been expunged from the congressional record. If he ever did anything else of value aside from drawing his pay, the Washington correspondents have failed to record it. Hawley is a lady-like, well meaning incompetent.
He never measured up to his job when he was elected and is no further advanced at the present time than he was when he first received his commission of office. The Republicans of the First Congressional district were "stung" when they gave him his nomination. The entire voting population of the district was "stung" again when he was elected.

The great majority of newspapers in the Willamette valley concede that the statements made above are correct. It is not news. It is merely a statement of facts which are already quite familiar to the thinking people of the state.

Now the Democrats of the First Congressional district have this year nominated a brilliant lawyer and thorough business man for the office of congressman. There can be no question raised as to his integrity or his ability. He is congressional timber in all that the name implies. His nomination is an honor to his party and a credit to his state. We refer to Hon. Frederick Hollister of Coos Bay—the flesh and blood which the Democrat proposes to substitute for a political corpse at the national capitol. (Paid adv.)

F. C. STELLMACHER

Frank C Stellmacher, candidate for County Clerk, nominated at the Democratic primaries. Six years in the County service—four years deputy County Clerk under B N Payne, two years Deputy Sheriff under D S Smith.

For the last six years he has been with M Sternberg and Company of Albany, Oregon.

Has a civil and military record of merit. Served with the Second Oregon in the Philippines during the Spanish-American war and is now in command of the Department of Oregon, United Spanish War Veterans. Served over twelve years in the Oregon National Guard, six years of this time being in command of the Company as Captain. Is now a member of the Reserve Corps of the state and subject to duty.

His service was without partisan or political consideration and as such is entitled to receive as fair and impartial treatment at the polls.
