SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

Mrs Geo Bilyeu made a trip to Portland Wednesday to secure furniture for their new home and also visited with her daughter Mrs Hart, returning home Saturday.

Miller Curl is still visiting friends in this neighborhood.

Mrs Smail who has been ill for some time is now able to sit up a little.

Mrs Griffin is slowly on the mend from a nervous breakdown.

Hog killing is now somewhat the order of the day as David Horsburgh killed ten fine pigs averaging some 200 lbs, and the Pie Eater killed two pigs to keep them from starving, as he had fed them three months and they only averaged 300 lbs, and as poverty stare them in the eyes he thought it best to get them out of their misery.

Everything is moving on nicely in this section.

The Pie Eater misses his News this week up to Tuesday noon.

Mrs Martha Smith kept house for Mrs Bilyeu while she was gone to Portland.

The Farmers Union met
Sunday with a full house and a fine dinner which was appreciated by all as the good sisters never fail to have a fine meal to present to the Union. We also transacted some important business of much interest to the Union.

Come out Mr Editor and wife we have spare ribs and sausage, and have a square meal with the old man.

As ever,
PIE EATER.

Finding a Reason.

"Who was that man at the side door awhile ago?" asked the husband of an Indiana wouldbe poetess the other day.

"Why, it was a man who said he had come to change my meter. I told him he had made a mistake in the number of the house, for the men had not finished wiring our house yet."

Husband, after thoughtful pause:
"Maybe he'd been reading some of your poetry."—Indianapolis News.

Deep Water Cups.

One interesting deep sea appliance is the water specimen cup, which is let down on the sounding line and is so arranged that the resistance of the water keeps open the valves of the cup during its descent and closes them during its ascent.
Water from any given depth can thus be brought to the surface for examination. These water cups are strongly built to resist the great pressure.—New York Tribune.

Football.

Football is understood to have originated among the Romans about the middle of the first century before Christ. It appears occasionally during the middle ages, but it was under the guidance of the public schools of Great Britain that the game advanced and became popular.—London Globe.
