

LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

UPPER SANTIAM EVENTS

Commissioner Butler was here last week inspecting the Gates bridge. He had the approach to the Mill City bridge replanked. He intends to move the rock crusher to the ridge above Jordan and crush rock for the road down toward Jordan.

Charles Wesely was seen going "over the hills and far away" to the Elkhorn country.

Mr Weddle, the Mill City barber, spent the better part of last Thursday night, during the big wind storm, holding down the tent in which he had his business since the big fire. He strapped his wife's clothes line over it and held on like grim death during the storm. He says, "If anyone thinks it was not a hurricane they ought to have been with me." He is located now in fine quarters in the I O O F block.

A tax meeting will be held on the 23rd to vote tax and choose a road supervisor.

A TRAGEDY

Last Saturday Mrs Frank Grier shot her husband and he died Sunday morning. She had separated from him and had entered suit for divorce. Saturday morning Mr Grier employed Mr Wilson to help him haul hay from the place where he and his wife formerly lived. They loaded the hay but Mrs Grier objected to them taking it away. In the meantime she got a rifle from the house and fired the fatal shot. Mr Wilson started the team on a run but lost the hay due to running over rough ground. It is said that the constable on the Linn county side went down to get her but she made him get away. However he was unarmed. It is also told that she fired twice at Mr Wilson. Saturday after the shooting a Mr Solomon who has been living with her came to Mill City but no one disturbed him because he was armed. Sunday, Sheriff Bodine came up, took Solomon a prisoner, got him in the automobile along with other officers, and went down past Potters mill to the Grier home but she was not there. The sheriff compelled Solomon to hunt for her. They went down the river to the Bradshaw place near Gooch. Solomon disappeared in the brush and came back "accompanied by the woman. They were taken at Albany. Mrs Grier was born and reared at Gates. Mr Grier has lived at Gates and Stayton. He was buried at Stayton.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburgh one of my children had a hard cough and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

Despondency Due to Indigestion.

It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa. "For years my digestion was so poor I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried everything that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.

Memoirs of Napoleon In Three Volumes

The personal reminiscences of Baron de Méneval, for thirteen years private secretary to Napoleon Bonaparte, bring out, as no history can, many enlightening and interesting side lights on the character of that greatest of leaders. De Méneval's descriptions have the piquancy and interest possible only because he was an actual eyewitness of the scenes and incidents of which he writes. Their reliability and historical interest can be judged by the fact that the very conservative French Academy publicly recommends them.
