The Knocker's Prayer.

Lord, please don't let this town grow. I've been here for thirty years, and during that time I've fought every public improvement. I've knocked everything and everybody, no firm or individual has established a business here without my doing all I could to put them out of business. I've hied about them, and would have stolen from them if I had the courage. I have done all I could to keep the town from growing and never have spoken a good word for it. I've knocked hard and often. I've put ashes on the children's slide and I've made the marshal stop the boys playing ball on my vacant lot. Whenever I saw anyone prospering or enjoying themselves I've started a reform to kill the business or spoil the fun. I don't want the young folks to stay in this town and I will do all I can by law, rule and ordinance to drive them away. It pains me, O Lord, to see that in spite of my knocking it is beginning to grow. Some day I fear I will be called upon to put down sidewalks in front of my property and who knows but what I may have to help keep up the streets that run by my premises? This, Lord, would be more than I could bear. It would cost me money, though all I have was made right here in this town. Then, too, more people might come if the town begins to grow, which would cause me to lose some of my pull. I ask, therefore, to keep this town at a standstill, that I may continue to be the chief. Amen.

SCIO - OREGON

G. L. Sutherland left for The Dalles Monday morning where he expected to be most of the week taking in the State Convention of the Farmers' Union. Mr. Sutherland stated before leaving that the Union expects in the near future to have a man in Portland who will devote his whole time to making purchases for the various Locals of the state. The Union also expects to place a representative in the public markets at Portland who will arrange for the disposal of the produce sent in by members of that organization. In Seattle the Farmers' Union has a man in the public market, and the innovation has proven very satisfactory.
