F. A. Boyington, a young attorney of Salem, was in town Saturday looking around with a possible view of locating here in the spring for the practice of law. He seemed favorably impressed with Scio and surrounding country, and should he decide to locate here will no doubt find that the town is amply large to support one of his chosen profession.

Christmas Greetings

Leave your Christmas orders for furniture, rugs, and in fact anything in my line. Perhaps your wife needs some new cooking utensils. Get her some aluminum ware, she will appreciate it or some silver ware. A pair of Weiss shears or scissors will make your daughter a present of the best that can be had. A good knife, razor strop or hone is useful for the boy or man. Of all things that gives the boy pleasure is a gun of some sort. Get one, and in the meantime if you have an unpaid account, pay at least part of it so we can have a little pleasure at Xmas time by knowing that we don't owe quite as much as we did last year at this time. If we all get hold and push a little we will help others along with us. Let us all give a heave and heave together. We have the goods and need the money. On all purchases of $5.00 or over I will give you a liberal discount for cash.

GOOD SUGGESTION TO SCIO PEOPLE

It is surprising the amount of old, foul matter the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc, known as Adler-i-ka, drains from the system. This remedy became famous by curing appendicitis and acts on BOTH the upper and lower bowel so thoroughly that ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. We are mighty glad we are Scio agents for Adler-i-ka. E C Peery, druggist.

The Christmas Thought

Ideas on Christmas giving are rapidly changing among the sensible. Those who think as they give are looking for a year-round service as the important thing.

In a week of shopping, with all its strain, you will not find a better gift than a year's subscription to the Youth's Companion. It offers its service, its clean entertainment, its fine suggestiveness week after week; and at the end of the year, which finds many a gift in the attic, dust covered and forgotten, brings the Companion again, with all the charm of last Christmastide.

No American monthly at any price offers the same amount of reading and none can offer better quality. Less than four cents a week provides this best of Christmas gifts—$2.00 a year. If you subscribe now, all the remaining issues of the year will be sent free, and the Companion Home Calendar. A copy of the calendar is also sent to those who make a gift subscription. Send for sample copies, and the Forecast for 1915.

The Brahman.

Religion plays a very important part in Indian village life, but it is in the holidays and the rites connected with them that religion asserts itself most conspicuously. It is then that the Brahman comes to the front. The Brahman is the priest, the "bhursu" (lords of the earth). They take the lead in all rural life absolutely and completely. In towns their ascendancy may be disputed, but in the Mofussil they still reign supreme. In fact, in some of the more primitive and out of the way villages the Brahmins are actually objects of worship. Nothing can go on without them, neither births, marriages, deaths nor feasts, and as a natural consequence there are many feasts.—Empire Review.

Not a Wise Choice.

A suburbanite who changes his trousers when he gets home and goes into the garden to work one afternoon placed his pocketbook in his working pants because he expected to pay a bill. While he slept that night his house caught fire. He questioned for a moment whether he should put on his good trousers or the ones holding the pocketbook and chose the latter. The better trousers were destroyed. Then he discovered only $3 in the pocketbook and new apparel cost $8.—New York Tribune
