

LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

UPPER SANTIAM EVENTS

It was children's night at the I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday the 25th.

It will be dedication of the I. O. O. F. block, Mill City, Tuesday this week. Prominent speakers are expected.

Mr. Weddle, the barber, has a neat and complete outfit as you will find in any city.

Election Saturday resulted in a one mill tax and the election of Silas Brown of Lyons as road supervisor.

Mr. Treesh has moved from the Gardiner place in Fox Valley to the George ranch near Minto.

The Carter Brothers are raising the roofing over their ginseng beds to a height of 6 feet. The lattice roofing was too low before. Too much shaded.

Lawyer Hetzel of Stayton was at Mill City gathering data for the Grier trial. He was deputized by County Attorney Hill.

An old friend says: "This is to be a hard winter." He says: "The tails of young pigs curl more than usual."

The Hammond Co. are putting up more sleeping rooms for men.

John Cleland of Albany came up with the county surveyor to take measurements.

County Surveyor Geddes spent last Friday and Saturday making an official survey of the territory concerned in the late murder. He is required to furnish a plat embodying the distances from whence the shooting took place to where certain persons stood at the time. It must include measurements from the Bradshaw place near Gooch to the car shop above Mill City on the south side. A survey was made to the pool room on the north side. Old General Hearsay says that one or more arrests may be made.

John says in a vision that he saw ten horns. On each horn was a crown. He says plainly that the ten horns were ten kings. There are exactly ten nations at war today. Has the prophecy anything to do with the European war? He said that Satan would be bound for a thousand years, then let loose. He further affirms that Satan would go into all the world and gather the nations to battle from Gog and Maygog. If the Devil is not loose, what is loose?

J. R. GEDDES.

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

Thanksgiving day was quite lively as most all were on the move. Mrs. Lee had a fine dinner for her children and grandchildren.

Miss May Crabtree drove over home Thursday from Albany, returning late the same evening Margaret Brock accompanied her to Albany, where they both have good jobs in the Home Restaurant.

Miss Merl Griggs, who is staying near Crabtree, drove in home Thursday.

Mrs. Small is not so well, as she is again confined to her bed part of the time.

The Pie Eater is making some improvement in the way of 100 rods of Steve Philippi's wire fence.

Mrs. Clara Griffin made a trip over to Albany last week to consult Dr. Davis as to her ailments. He pronounced her in a critical condition, but thinks she will pull through with care.

G. L. Sutherland went up to the Dalles Monday to attend the Farmers' State Educational Union which is held there Dec. 1, 2 and 3.

He will return to Portland and interview merchants in the interest of our Local Union.

Capt. Bilyeu of Crabtree was out Thursday with his buggy to take his best girl out for a little outing.

We had our first indication of snow Sunday, Nov. 29, which came down quite lively for an hour to remind us of old times, and still stays cold and stormy. The mountains all around have on their Sunday clothes.

The Road meeting Saturday was a complete fizzle, as the majority was afraid to vote a 3 mill tax for fear it would be used on the roads where they seldom traveled. So we will all take pleasure together in pulling through the road and another year, as we neither have money nor road boss. So the bill goes with the bacon, and all us the supervisor and roads, because he doesn't fix the roads on credit, or pay it when he gets rich. PIE EATER.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburgh one of my children had a bad cough and coughed himself ill. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

Special Sunday dinners at the Scio Hotel.

If you will subscribe to the News or renew your subscription we will include three standard magazines, all one year, for only 5c extra. Write or call at this office.

Loggers and Dry Sox shoes sold at the People's Store cheaper than elsewhere.

SHELburn ITEMS

Claude Churchill, wife and child returned from Hebo Sunday eve.

Grandma Fleming is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. George Grimes.

J. Long, of Gates, made a flying trip to Shelburn Thursday.

No Sunday school was held at Shelburn Sunday on account of the bad weather.

Eugene Bowman, who is attending High School at Albany, returned to his home to spend Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Porter's son and family, from Kansas, are visiting here now.

Herbert Blatchford spent Thanksgiving with his brother George.

Miss Gertrude McLain returned to her school Sunday after a week's vacation.

There was a large attendance at the dance given in the Gooch hall Thanksgiving night.

Alfred Blatchford and wife spent Thanksgiving in Portland.

Those who went on the excursion to Corvallis last Monday to attend the teachers' institute from Shelburn were Gertrude McLain, J. W. Miller, Will Hiron and wife and A. P. Hiron and wife.

Despondency Due to Indigestion.

It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa. "For years my digestion was so poor I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried everything that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.

Picture show Sunday night, 10c and 15 cents.
