Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburgh one of my children had a hard cough and coughed dreadfully.
Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once.
I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take.
They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers."

THE RURAL CHURCH

THE FARMERS THE CUSTODIANS OF THE NATION'S MORALITY.

Cooperation of Church, School and Press Essential to Community Building.

By Peter Radford,
Lecturer National Farmers' Union.

The church, the press and the school form a triple alliance of progress that guides the destiny of every community, state and nation. Without them civilization would wither and die and through them life may attain its greatest blessing, power and knowledge.
The farmers of this nation are greatly indebted to this social triumvirate for their uplifting influence, and on behalf of the American plowman I want to thank those engaged in these high callings for their able and efficient service, and I shall offer to the press a series of articles on co-operation between these important influences and the farmers in the hope of increasing the efficiency of all by mutual understanding and organized effort. We will take up first the rural church.

The Farmers Are Great Church Builders.

The American farmer is the greatest church builder the world has ever known. He is the custodian of the nation's morality; upon his shoulders rests the "ark of the covenant" and he is more responsive to religious influences than any other class of citizenship.

The farmers of this nation have built 120,000 churches at a cost of $750,000,000, and the annual contribution of the nation toward all church institutions approximates $200,000,000 per annum. The farmers of the United States build 22 churches per day.
There are 20,000,000 rural church communicants on the farm, and 54 per cent of the total membership of all churches reside in the country.

The farm is the power-house of all progress and the birthplace of all that is noble. The Garden of Eden was in the country and the man who would get close to God must first get close to nature.

The Functions of a Rural Church.
If the rural churches today are going to render a service which this age demands, there must be co-operation between the religious, social and economic life of the community.

The church to attain its fullest measure of success must enrich the lives of the people in the community it serves; it must build character; develop thought and increase the efficiency of human life. It must serve the social, business and intellectual, as well as the spiritual and moral side of life.
If religion does not make a man more capable, more useful and more just, what good is it? We want a practical religion, one we can live by and farm by, as well as die by.

Fewer and Better Churches.

Blessed is that rural community which has but one place of worship.
While competition is the life of trade, it is death to the rural church and moral starvation to the community.
Petty sectarianism is a scourge that blights the life, and church prejudice saps the vitality of many communities. An over-churching community is a crime against religion, a serious handicap to society and a useless tax upon agriculture.

While denominations are essential and church pride commendable, the high teaching of universal Christianity must prevail if the rural church is to fulfill its mission to agriculture.

We frequently have three or four churches in a community which is not able to adequately support one. Small congregations attend services once a month and all fail to perform the religious functions of the community.
The division of religious forces and the breaking into fragments of moral effort is oftentimes little less than a calamity and defeats the very purpose they seek to promote.

The evils of too many churches can be minimized by co-operation. The social and economic life of a rural community are respective units and cannot be successfully divided by denominational lines, and the churches can only occupy this important field by co-operation and co-ordination.

The efficient country church will definitely serve its community by leading in all worthy efforts at community building, in uniting the people in all co-operative endeavors for the general welfare of the community and in arousing a real love for country life and loyalty to the country home and these results can only be successfully accomplished by the united effort of the press, the school, the church and organized farmers.

Christmas Greetings

Leave your Christmas orders for furniture, rugs, and in fact anything in my line. Perhaps your wife needs some new cooking utensils. Get her some aluminum ware, she will appreciate it or some silver ware. A pair of Weiss shears or scissors will make your daughter a present of the best that can be had. A good knife, razor strop or hone is useful for the boy or man. Of all things that gives the boy pleasure is a gun of some sort.
Get one, and in the meantime if you have an unpaid account, pay at least part of it so we can have a little pleasure at Xmas time by knowing that we don't owe quite as much as we did last year at this time. If we all get gold and push a little we will help others along with us. Let us all give a heave and heave together. We have the goods and need the money. On all purchases of $5.00 or over I will give you a liberal discount for cash.

Our Xmas Gift to You

Do you remember your friends at Xmas time? Of course you do and we want to remember our friends with something that is not only useful but lasting as well. Our subscribers are our real friends, and with such a variety of tastes it has not been an easy task to find something that all would appreciate. We believe we have found it and here it is—a 226-piece Xmas Assortment for making your Xmas gifts look attractive, an up-to-date dress pattern of your own selection and three first-class magazines—one an agricultural publication with a National reputation—one a fashion authority and the other a household magazine of genuine merit.

We are sure these four issues coming to you every month will make this gift a lasting one—something that will make you remember us kindly for a whole year

These Three Magazines each one year

Today's Magazine is devoted to the interests of all professionals—the profession of being a woman—that is to say the business of bringing a wife, homemaker and hom-keeper. In this magazine the housewife finds numerous ideas and suggestions for comfort, for convenience, for economy, for betterment.
—Ideas that she can immediately put to work under her own roof. A far greater proportion of its pages is devoted to practical topics than any other leading women's publication, and Today's is also the recognized headquarters for advice and delightful stories. You may select your May Manton pattern from your magazine by sending a postcard to Today's Magazine, Canton, Ohio, within 60 days after first copy is received.

try Raiser. Each issue has several appetizing recipes by well-known writers. For 34 years Farm and Home has been recognized as the leading National Magazine of Rural Life. Its past record is the best indication of its value. Its editors and contributors are all practical men and women—sons and daughters of the soil who give you facts and figures that enable you to profit from the successes and failures of others.
