Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburgh one of my children had a hard cough and coughed dreadfully.
Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once.
I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take.
They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers."

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO

Scio Press, Dec., 23, 1892

The average Scio merchant apparently cares very little for the country patronage these days.
Some of them at least do not care enough for it to ask for it.

Next month the Bank of Scio will elect a set of new officers, and O S May, the popular and jovial cashier steps down and out and A J Johnson succeeds him. A change in the ownership of stock has brought this result.

Wednesday and Thursday will pass very well for winter days.
Snow fell nearly all the time, but being very wet did not accumulate to any great extent.
One single solitary sleigh made its appearance but you could tell from the way the horses pulled, that what snow there was on the ground, was but little, if any advantage in making it slip along easily.

We understand that there will be Christmas exercises held at the M E church tomorrow night.
The customary Christmas tree will be dispensed with and a ladder arranged to hold the presents.

County Clerk Payne has just completed a summing up of the mortgage indebtedness of the people of Linn county and finds it amounts to a little over $1,108,- 000.

The price of hen fruit is now sufficiently high—35 cents per dozen, that every superannuated hen that has gone out of business as well as the sprightly courtesying young pullet on her first legs, should get down to business. A close attention to barnyard fowls would be a good policy for our farmers to pursue in these days of cheap wheat.

Some party or parties imbibed an overload of "O be joyful" Monday night judging from the amount of racket they made.
An Indian war whoop or something nearly akin to is not pleasant to the ears of nervous, light sleeping persons. Parties who participate in bacchanalian midnight orgies, should take into consideration that private citizens have some rights that even they should respect, and one of them is to have quietness at night, and not to be disturbed by whoops and yells that would do credit to a wild Indian.

Clyde S. Philippi

Clyde S. Philippi son of Stephn and Mary Philippi was born Sep.
30, 1879 in Linn county and died Dec. 21, 1914 at Scio, aged 35 years 2 months and 20 days.
For the last year and a half he has been afflicted with the disease which finally caused his death.

He was married to Miss Ella Adamson in 1901 She died about six months later. In 1903 was married again to Miss Theresa Hotton of Silverton. To this union one son was born, Desmond Max age 4. He leaves to mourn his death a wife, one son, his father Stephen Philippi of Scio, two brothers, Everett of Silverton and Vilas of Kingston and a half sister Hazel Philippi of Scio. When he was 13 years old his mother died at Jefferson.
Clyde was greatly beloved in the communities where he has lived and leaves a host of friends.

Funeral services were held at the Masonic cemetery on Thursday conducted by Bro. McLain of Shelburn.

Mrs S B Cole was a passenger to Albany Friday.

Mr and Mrs D A Holman who have lived at Los Angeles for some time are here visiting relatives. Mr Holman has poor health and had to leave California.

Mr and Mrs Henry Stam of Jefferson were in town Saturday.

Be sure and come to the Mask ball New Year's Eve, and hear the Kimball sisters, cornet and trombone soloists, who will assist the Wesely orchestra in furnishing music.

A Masquerade Ball will be given at Scio on New Year's Eve.

Local Druggist Makes Many Friends

E C Peery, druggist, reports they are making many friends through the QUICK benefit which Scio people receive from the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-i-ka. This remedy became famous by curing appendicitis and it is the most thorough bowel cleanser known, acting on BOTH the lower and upper bowel. JUST ONE DOSE of Adler-i-ka relieves constipation and gas on the stomach almost IMMEDIATELY.

Sick Two Years With Indigestion.

"Two years ago I was greatly benefitted through using two or three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs S A Keller, Elida, Ohio. "Before taking them I was sick for two years with indigestion." Sold by all dealers.

A Good Definition.

A foreign journal says that a small boy who had been playing nearly all day with a newly arrived acquaintance of the family, a gentleman who had nearly reached his fiftieth year, said to his father when the gentleman had gone away:

"When will that young man come again?"

"Young man!" exclaimed the father. "He's older than I am! Will you please tell me what 'a young man' means to you?"

"Why, a young man," answered the boy—"a young man is one that has a good time!"
