Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburgh one of my children had a hard cough and coughed dreadfully.
Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once.
I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take.
They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers"

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

Our cold snap has passed away and so has Christmas, so we are all happy and looking forward to the coming New Year, which will pass us all over into the New Year of 1915.

Mrs Morris of Albany is spending the holidays with her sister Mrs S W Gaines.

Mrs Neva Sturges has arrived at her sick mother's bed side awaiting an operation on Mrs Clara Griffin by Dr Davis of Albany.

Miss Bonnie Sutherland had the sad misfortune of falling from a horse on returning from a Christmas tree and breaking her right arm at the elbow, shattering the bone in small bits which may leave her a cripple with a stiff elbow.

Miss Ella Smith while skating on the ice had the misfortune to fall in such a manner as to dislocate her wrist which is causing her a lot of pain.

John Griffin of east of Scio is down visiting with his mother Mrs S W Gaines during the holidays.

Mrs Jennie Lovejoy went over to Stayton to take in Christmas and have a time of her life among her old chums.

Clifford Griffin rigged up with his Sunday best on, and went out Christmas stepping as high as a blind dog in wild rye, casting sheep eyes at the fair maids as they went by.

G A Griffin and his brother Clifford made a trip to the Roger mountain farm Sunday to return his cattle to his valley farm to feed through the winter.

The Pie Eater received a pair of iron or steel shoes from the east. He is as proud as a boy is of a new dog or knife. He put them on and stepped around like a blind mule in a nettle patch making more noise than a stray dog with a can of rocks tied to his tail.

S W Gaines received a letter from his wayward son, Theodore whom he had not heard from since last April.
He is now holding forth at Latah, Wash. well and hearty.

Dale Potdexter of Scio was out to the Santiam Farm after two fine fat hogs, for the Scio butchers, Monday for the New Years trade as he had tried 5 for the Christmas trade.

Oscar Philpott and wife went to Crabtree Monday.

New Year Greeting

I wish to thank all who have given me a share of their business during 1914 and ask all and as many more as see fit that want to save on their purchases, to continue to come during 1915 and make it more prosperous to all concerned, so at the close of another year we can all say we have accomplished more than in 1914. It is before us, let us grasp it, we can look back and see where we have made mistakes; let us try and not make the same, but remedy them and grow two dollars where we grew one the past year. Wishing You one and all a Happy and Prosperous New Year,
N I Morrison.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy—The Mother's Favorite.

"I give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my children when they have colds or coughs," writes Mrs Verne Shaffer, Vandergrift, Pa. "It always helps them and is far superior to any other cough medicine I have used. I advise anyone in need of such a medicine to give it a trial." For sale by all dealers.

Mrs. McClain's Experience With Croup.

"When my boy, Ray, was small he was subject to croup, and I was always alarmed at such times. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy proved far better than any other for this trouble.
It always relieved him quickly. I am never without it in the house for I know it is a positive cure for croup," writes Mrs W R McClain, Blairsville, Pa. For sale by all dealers.

Scio Druggist Has Valuable Agency

E C Peery has the Scio agency for the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc, known as Adler-i-ka, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. This simple remedy has powerful action and drains such surprising amounts of old matter from the body that JUST ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IM-MEDIATELY. The quick action of Adler-i-ka is astonishing.

Sick Two Years With Indigestion.

"Two years ago I was greatly benefitted through using two or three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs S A Keller, Elida, Ohio. "Before taking them I was sick for two years with indigestion." Sold by all dealers.
