AND DON'T MAKE YOUR ONLY STOP IN PORTLAND

If you want a prosperous town where people can come who are disposed to make homes, then do away with and bury from sight all jealousy and spite work, move for common prosperity and mutual benefit. Wake up, roll up your eyes, roll up your sleeves and go to work.

Abraham Lincoln never said "Hello, Central," never dodged an automobile, never held a strap in a trolley car, never pushed a button for a light never heard a phonograph and never posed for a motion picture and yet Abraham Lincoln died only fifty years ago.

Circumstances alter boys' ages as well as cases. Answering a question as to how old he was, a Topeka boy replied: "Eight years old at home. 6 years on the railways and 4 on the street cars."

Essay on Editors

The small boy who wrote the following essay seems to know his subject: "Don't know how newspapers come to be in the world. I don't think God does, for he ain't got nothing to say about them and editors in the bible. I think the editor is one of the missing links you read of and stayed in the flood and then came out and wrote the thing up and has been here every since. I don't think he ever died. I never saw a dead one and never heard of one getting licked. Our paper is a mighty good one, but the editor goes all winter with out any sox and paw ain't paid his subscription since the paper started. I asked paw if that was why the editor had to suck the juice out of snowballs in the winter and go to bed when he had his shirt washt in summer and paw took me to the woodshed and licked me hard. If the editor makes a mistake folks say he ought to be hung, but if the doctor makes any mistakes he buries them and the people dassent say anything because the doctor can read and write hog latin. When an editor makes a mistake there is a fight, a cassin and a law suit, but if the doctor makes a mistake there is a funeral, cut flowers and silence. A doctor can use a word a foot long without him or anybody else knowing what it means, but if the doctor uses it he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he gets paid for it, but if the editor goes he gets shot. If a doctor gets drunk it's a case of being overcome by the beer; if he dies it is from heart failure. If the editor gets drunk it is a case of too much booze; if he dies it is the jim-jams. Any old college can make a doctor. An editor has to be born."—Ex.

Mrs. McClain's Experience With Croup.

"When my boy, Ray, was small he was subject to croup, and I was always alarmed at such times. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy proved far better than any other for this trouble. It always relieved him quickly. I am never without it in the house for I know it is a positive cure for croup," writes Mrs W R McClain, Blairsville, Pa. For sale by all dealers.

Sick Headache

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until during one of those sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time."
