

The Santiam News.

VOL. XVIII

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1915.

NO. 28

Possibly About You

Country sausage wanted. Scio Hotel.

Call at the News office and get a sample copy of the Northwest Farmstead.

Mrs L M Davis was a passenger to Portland Wednesday.

Mr and Mrs Elber May of Salem were in town Monday.

Dr T K Sanderson was a Portland visitor Sunday.

Mrs F L Smith of Portland is visiting at the home of her sister Mrs Sanderson.

The bargain rate of the Portland Telegram has been extended to February 10th. Subscriptions received at this office, at $3.50 for the year.

Charley Dolezal was operated on for appendicitis at the Parker hospital Tuesday by Dr Prill, assisted by Dr Dale of Harrisburg. At last reports the young man was getting along as well as could be expected.

Miss Anna Johnson returned Monday after spending Sunday with relatives in Albany.

Mrs Aida Hutchinson who has been visiting her sisters here, Mrs Wm Abbot and Mrs S Philippi, returned to her home in Portland Tuesday.

You can't buy your chicken and other accessories and have a Sunday dinner for 35 cents. Rest each Sunday and get your dinner at the Scio Hotel.

If you will subscribe to the News or renew your subscription we will include three standard magazines, all one year, for only 25c extra. Write or call at this office.

Picture show Sunday night. 10c and 15 cents.

Drs Lowe and Turner will be in Scio again in February. Watch for date later.

Two incubators for sale—One Trusty, 150 egg capacity complete with brooder, and one Sure Hatch 150 egg capacity with brooder; $10.00 each. Wm Brenner.

Don't get excited, it is only a little hot air. If you will only compare my prices with the Catalogue houses, you will find that I am selling as cheap as any of them. Send in your order and state what Catalogue and page and number with the prices and try me and see. I have been selling at the mail order house prices or lower for over two years. Morrison leads others follow. Investigate my prices with others and be convinced.

N I Morrison

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION EXPIRES on the date stamped in the space below. To those who pay promptly in advance the subscription price is $1.25 per year. The price is $1.50 if paid at end of year. The paper is not sent to subscribers who are more than one year in arrears.

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO

Scio Press, Jan. 27, 1893

The chicken-pox is said to be prevalent in town nowadays.

Philadelphia physicians have decided that membranous croup is contagious.

Boston photographers have been forbidden by the council of that city to photograph the public on Sunday.

The series of meetings, conducted in our city this week had one very unusual result: Tuesday night; one of the saloons closed up and both proprietor and bartender went to church.

Albany now has one large school building with eight rooms which is over crowded and another will have to be built in the near future. Scio should take warning and not build the proposed new house too small.

Mrs Chas. Warner will start tomorrow (Saturday) for Elkton to visit her parents. She purposes being absent two or three weeks. Miss Cad Warner will do the housekeeping art for Charlie, her brother while Mrs Warner is absent.

The citizens of the Scio school district have nearly all signed the petition to the legislature for the issuance of school bonds, but seven or eight refusing. These names together with their reasons for not signing have been taken; and if when they are read by the members of the legislature, the murmur of mossback is not heard, we will be surprised.

A dance will be given at the Scio I O O F Hall, Saturday evening, Jan 30. Good music, good floor. Tickets 50 c.

For Sale—A few Barred Plymouth Rock roosters at $1.50 each. J W Hiron, R 2, Scio.

For Sale, Barred Rock hens at 1.50 each, 17 months old. Come at once and see them, 3 miles Northeast of Scio, Jos A Senz, R 1.

D L Wareham who has been connected with the Crown mines for several years was in town this week on business. He informed the News that he intends putting in a garage at Stayton in the near future.

Dale Poindexter made a business trip to Stayton Monday.

Let the hotel worry—Get your Sunday dinner at the Scio Hotel.

Pete Bilyeu whose home is in Washington county is here this week visiting at the home of his brother J A Bilyeu.

Oregon News Notes

Oregon Development News in Line of Industries, Payrolls, and Products of Labor and Enterprise.

A water grade highway up Hood River is being planned.

The First National Bank of Springfield has bought a site and will build.

Bandon—The Perry Veneer plant has begun operations and business men are trying to start up the woolen mill.

There are protests against maintaining the Bureau of Mines and Mining and the state department of Geology when Oregon stone is rejected on all public buildings.

Ontario—Project is started to reclaim 10,000 of land on Succor Creek.

Baker—New St. Elizabeth hospital will be opened next month.

St. Helens—New vegetable and fruit cannery about completed.

Portland firm has order for 10,000,000 feet of lumber to be shipped to England in March and April.

Ontario—French government has leased the fairgrounds to handle large horse shipments.

One mile of new railroad construction in the state is worth more to the people than forty new laws by the legislature.

Coos Bay mills and factories are all starting up.

There is a general demand that one half the fish and game licenses go to the county where collected.

Salem Fruit Union at Salem expects to double its business and handle $500,000 of products in 1915.

Ex-Governor West opposes any change in the Workingmen's Compensation law or the State Fish and Game Commission.

Portland—The new Pacific Iron Works plant will be 400 feet long one way.

North Bend—Bids have been asked on the new $100,000 Simpson hotel.

Judge J N Campbell warned the citizens of West Linn against building any but hard surfaced streets.

Portland—City Dock Commission asks a bond issue of $800,000 to erect a municipal grain elevator.

The more laws and commissions the politicians create for the "benefit of the people," the larger grows the army of office holders and the higher the taxes climb to support them, and the "benefitted people" pay the bill and continue to wait for the "benefits".

Dayton is to have a $30,000 mausoleum.

Salem public library received $5058.13 for 1914 and spent $713.30 for books.

Arlington—Creamery here being put in shape for operation.

Gardner—First National Bank will erect a building.

Portland—A $35,000 ware-

School Notes

(GRAMMAR DEPARTMENT)

Clyde Wann, Agnes Prochaska and Johnie Meritt of the Grammar Department recently took the eighth grade examinations under the supervision of Mr Cyrus. All three students passed with a good average and received their diplomas.

Miss Shannon and her pupils have been working industriously on the desks and walls of the rooms and the result is gratifying.

Each pupil removed the stains and marks as nearly as possible from his desk and they have been repainted to match the new ones.

A border has been placed above the blackboard and specimens of the best work will be mounted for exhibition.

The proceeds of the play given by this department have been used to good advantage. A New Universal Encyclopedia consisting of eight volumes has been purchased, also three suitable pictures, "Interior of the Colosseum," "Great American Statesmen," and "Great Musicians" and two illustrated quotations by Harmon.

Picture Show Sunday Night

Why not spend Sunday evening at the picture show? First class films, good music, and admission price 15c and 10c. Show starts at 8:00 sharp.

house contract let on Sullivans Gulch.

St. Johns improvements totalled $140,000 for 1914.

Auto car service between Eugene and Springfield may compel reduction in P E & E train service.

Bills introduced in the legislature about half the number of two years ago.

Salem Woolen Mills reopen employing 125 hands.

Pendleton put down 35 blocks of Warrenite pavement in 1914.

Between semesters O A C Glee Club members were given a trip by the railroad company in payment for concerts given for the company.

Brownsville cannery put up 31 tons of beef and several tons of pumpkins. Cash sales $26,577.

Eugene city council is holding Economy Conferences to reduce taxes. Baker—Will not erect light plant but has contracted with Eastern Oregon Light and Power Co.

The output of gold, silver, copper and lead in Oregon for 1914 fell off $200,000 in spite of spending $50,000 on a bureau of mines.

Fifty-three per cent of Oregon farmers employ laborers, paying $11,162,000 a year wages. A law is proposed to bring them under the state Labor Bureau.

Upon signing up 5000 acres suitable soil in the Rogue River Valley, C W Niblay will establish a beet sugar factory at Medford.

8th Grade Exams.

Sixty-nine pupils passed the 8th grade exams held last week in Linn county. This is out of a number of 360 who took the examinations but many only took partial examinations and will finish when they are again held at the end of the school year. This accounts for the comparatively few who passed. The examinations were particularly stiff this time, said Mr Jackson. Following are those over the county who passed.

Lebanon, Margaret Miles, John Durst, Fred Bartenberg, Minnie Ray; Larwood, Ralph Hassler; Mount Pleasant, Ernest Aegerter, David Aegerter, William E Ryan, Bessie Shank, Francis Kiver; Holly, Landis Philpott, John Cracker, Walter Hunter, Blanche King; Oakville, Marcus Gullet, William Arett, Edwin R Smith; Jordan Valley, Edwin Weidman, Rose Weidman; Shedd, Dorothy Satchwell, Georgia St John, Raymond Shedd, Vera McClain, Mina McClain, Edith McBride; Foster, Alex Goodwin; Scio, John Merritt, Clyde Wann, Agnes Prochaska; Denney, Henrietta and Herbert Vollstedt; Waterloo, Geo. Meisinger; Thomas, May Serfling, Louise Harr, Irvin Peterson, Clara Prokop; Crabtree, Teresa Dobson, Ethel and Nellie Smith.

Henry Dolezal of Larwood was in town Monday and Tuesday to be at the side of his nephew, Charley Dolezal who was operated on for appendicitis Monday.

Scio Produce Co.

Cash buyers for all kinds of produce, livestock, hides, sheep and goat pelts.

Thos. Large, Manager.

For exchange—160 acres improved homestead in the fertile Fort Rock Valley, Lake County, 70 miles south of Bend, for a small ranch near Scio. Enquire at News office.

The Northwest Farmstead, one of the Orange Judd publications which is advertised in connection with the News in another column is one of the best Clubbing bargains which has ever been offered to the public anywhere. This is a live farm and home paper and comes once a week, 52 times a year. This paper is yours for the asking when you pay one dollar for a year's subscription to the News. Be sure and ask for the Farmstead if you want it and your name will be entered for one year. This applies to either new subscribers or renewals. Don't put off subscribing too long as this offer may be withdrawn at any time.

For Sale

Brood sows will farrow soon bred by registered Poland boar. Address Emil Holub, Crabtree Ore.