AND DON'T MAKE YOUR ONLY STOP IN PORTLAND

It takes a rich man to draw a check, a pretty girl to draw attention, a horse to draw a cart, a porous plaster to draw the skin, and a well displayed advertisement in The Santiam News to draw trade.

It is seldom you will see a woman wearing a dress she has "turned" three seasons and faded cotton hose, with patched heels, to say to her liege lord, "I love you just as well as when we were married ten years ago."

If we would not make any mistakes, we would either exhibit ourselves to a dime museum as a great wonderful freak, or go directly to heaven as altogether unfit for this imperfect mundane life. But thank fortune, we prove our humanity by the very mistakes that we make. Every one makes mistakes in his profession, but the mistakes of a newspaper editor are spread out for all to see.

If Scio had a few more men like Dr. Prill, Dr. Sanderson, Dr. Hobson, Shelton, Morrison, Weselys, Brown, Peery, and several others, to work in conjunction with the wide awake farmers such as Messrs. Bilyeu, Pettit, Brenner, Shimaneck, Sutherland and others too numerous to mention, Scio would soon be what it should have been twenty years ago—a modern little city. Let us make it boys—we can do it.

During 1915 we want to make the News more interesting to its readers and to this end we ask for the co-operation of our friends. We invite our readers to send in news items of every description. If you have company, or there is someone visiting at your neighbor's, tell us about it. We want all the short, news locals we can get and invite everyone to make themselves our correspondent. If it happens that a news item which interests you is not found in this newspaper it is because we did not know of it.

All of our subscribers who have received the magazines seem to like them. Some have told us they don't see how we can do it. When renewing your subscription to the News don't forget to ask about the magazines.

For the stomach and Liver.

I N Stuart, West Webster, N. Y., writes "I have used Chamberlain's Tablets for disorders of the stomach and liver off and on for the past five years and it affords me pleasure to state that I have found them to be just as represented. They are mild in their action and the result have been satisfactory. I value them highly." For sale by all dealers.

Appreciation

The Youth's Companion makes an earnest plea for an "appreciation league" and the idea is most worthy.

Probably you have complained to the floorwalker or department superintendent when a sales girl has been discourteous. Have you ever gone to the floorwalker or department superintendent to say a word for the salesgirl who was exceptional attentive and anxious to please? asks the Companion.

Very likely you have written to the general manager of the electric road when a conductor rang the bell to soon or did not notice your signal to stop. Have you ever written to tell him about the conductor who is always courteous and obliging?

If you think one act necessary a times, is not the other fair and generous? Are kindness and courtesy always to be taken for granted in small business relations among strangers, or are you readier to find fault than to express appreciation?

A man in an Ohio city has founded what he calls an "appreciation league." Its members agree to "report" employees who are considerate and courteous, to emphasize the amiable things that people do, to watch more keenly for virtues than for weakness and faults. The league is an informal organization; you can become a member by beginning at once to practice its principles.

A simple idea? Yes, but if it could spread from ocean to ocean, what a wave of kindness and courtesy would sweep over the land!

Merle Cyrus went to Portland Wednesday morning where he has a job for the summer with the Ford Automobile people.

Miss Helen Karhu, a trained nurse who has been at the Parker hospital the past three months, left for her home in Salem the first of the week.
