

FIREMEN RECOVER MORE GOODS FROM Hamilton's Great Fire

In clearing away the debris of the great fire which destroyed Hamilton's stocks a few weeks ago, the firemen uncovered about six great dray loads of merchandise. This consisted chiefly of sweaters, knit underwear, hosiery, yards of woolens, silks, etc. It was practically undamaged; water-soaked only! Everything has been perfectly dried and will now give just as good service as ever. Everything goes on sale at tremendous savings!

Store Closed Thursday, March 11 to Arrange Stocks--Friday and Saturday Bigger Bargains than Ever--Plan to be here Early

This is the greatest sale you've ever shared in! Thousands of people have come from miles around to take advantage of it. We're prepared to handle bigger crowds than ever for Friday and Saturday--Be here when the doors open.

Monday was the 41st anniversary of the Herald. It was established in 1847 as a weekly newspaper by Messrs. Barns, Pottinger and Speel. It was established as a morning daily the first week in December, 1885 in conjunction with the weekly, becoming the first daily newspaper in Linn county, and is the oldest by two years.--Albany Herald.

Walt Mason

The great, fine men are oft obscure; they have no wide, resounding fame, that experts warrant to endure until the finish of the game. Old Chickenshead is such a man, and though he has no store of yen, he's always doing what he can to help along his fellowmen. He has no millions to disburse, but when he meets a hungry guy, he digs a quarter from his purse which buys the sinkers and the pie. The first of bloated millionaires mean nothing of a sacrifice; they sit around on easy chairs and count the scads they have on ice; if Croesus gives ten thousand bucks to help some college off the rocks, he still can have his wine and ducks--he has ten million in his box. The widow's mite I do not doubt, in heaven made a bigger splash than sheekels. Pharisees shelled out from their large wads of ill-gained cash. And so the poor man when he breaks his only William in his pants to buy some widow tea and cakes is making angels sing and dance. In fertile soil he's sowing seeds, and he shall reap a rich reward; for he who gives the coin he needs, is surely lending to the Lord. --Walt Mason.

Miss Myrtle Myers returned to her home in Portland the last of the week after a visit at the home of her brother, E D Myers.

To the Housewife.

Madame if your husband is like most men he expects you to look after the health of yourself and children. Coughs and colds are most likely to lead to serious diseases. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when it has a cold. If you will inquire into the merits of the various remedies that are recommended for coughs and colds, you will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy stands high in the estimation of people who use it. It is prompt and effectual, pleasant to take, which are qualities especially to be desired when a medicine is intended for children. For sale by all dealers.
