Surprise Party

A complete and jolly surprise farewell party was given Mr and Mrs Will M Abbott at their home on Scio heights Wednesday evening March 24. Their home was taken by storm with artillery and rapid firing guns loaded to the muzzle with sandwiches, cake, pie and all kinds of good things to eat and of course they surrendered. R Shelton Brigadier General was in command. Mr Abbott on hearing the first gun took to the woods, but seeing his wife standing her ground turned and faced the music. While lunch was prepared by those who took charge of the dining room, Miss Severance presided at the piano and rendered some beautiful selections of instrumental music, after which Miss Freeman entertained with vocal selections.

About fifty guests were present, who presented Mr and Mrs Abbott with a beautiful present, and wished them success in their new home and their new undertaking.

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO

Scio Press, Mar. 31, 1893

A story is current on the streets that the Scio small boys are rustling for eggs, presumably to celebrate Easter Sunday with. The energy and zeal they manifest in gathering them from any and everybodys henneries and even from their kitchens would be commendable if extended in a proper direction.

A J Johnson cashier of the bank of Scio and R E Hibler, one of our leading merchants went to Albany Friday with business intent. We dont suppose that either of them attended the Nye-Burbank lecture at the Opera house. Oh, no!

Our city school is reported to be crowded; the services of another teacher are required.

D Myers on Wednesday sent samples of curly maple and curly ash wood to be placed in the Oregon exhibit at the Worlds Fair. They are exceptionally fine specimens.

Judge Matthew P Deady of the U S district court of Portland, died at his rooms at the Hill last Friday, aged nearly 70 years. Judge Deady came to Oregon when the state was nothing but a vast wilderness, and has been closely identified with the history of both the territorial days and since statehood has been assumed by Oregon.

Ex-President Harrison will commence his labors as lecturer in the law department of Stanford University next fall.

It is now announced that President Cleveland will call congress in extra session together early in next September.

Consult Drs Lowe & Turner the eye specialists at Scio Hotel Saturday April 17. Wait for them.

Dance

A dance will be given Saturday April 17 at the Richardson Gap Z C B J and T J S hall. Good music will be furnished and a good time assured to all. Everybody cordially invited to attended.

A list of those present at the Abbott farewell party was furnished the News, but lack of space prohibits its publication this week.

Mr and Mrs Wm Abbott left this Thursday morning for Falls City where they will make their home for the next year at least, having leased a hotel there for that length of time. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them for their success.

Look up Morrison's special in display ad, which is changed every week.
