

The Santiam News.

VOL. XVIII

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 20, 1915.

NO. 45

Possibly About You

Chas Dolezel of Larwood transacted business in Scio Tuesday.

S K Barnes of Gilkey was a business visitor in Scio last Monday.

M E Arnold returned Friday from a few days visit at Albany and neighboring points.

Sam Zysset was in town the first of the week driving a Maxwell roadster which he is breaking to harness.

The Miller boys moved their planer last week from Aumsville to their mill two miles southeast of Scio.

Mr and Mrs Wm Young, J F Oupor and J N Weddle went to Stayton today to attend an Odd Fellows blowout there tonight.

Mrs E D Myers and Mrs W F Gill returned Saturday evening from a two weeks visit with relatives and friends in Portland.

I have taken over R L DeVaney's grain buying at this place and am in the market for oats of all kinds. See me before selling. R T Smith.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding rings—F M French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany.

Geo. P Warner was in Albany Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs A D Baker, a pioneer resident, who died at her home at Portland a few days previously. She is survived by a husband and several grown children.

F L Rosegrant, the Jordan merchant was in town Saturday to meet his daughters, who have just finished the school year at White Salmon Washington. He reports business at Jordan keeping up to normal.

W A Cross the harness maker arrived from Silverton the last of the week and has been busy getting his shop in shape for work in his new location, one door north of the Scio Feed Co's store. He and Mrs Cross have fitted up rooms in the back part of the building and he may be found on deck at any time when anything is needed in his line.

Work of correcting eighth grade examination papers was completed Tuesday, according to County School Superintendent Jackson says the Herald, and the results will be announced either Wednesday or Thursday. The work started Monday. The papers represented the largest number of students ever to take examinations at one time in Linn county. Those grading the papers are Mr Jackson, Supervisors Benner and Barker, Prof. Bigbee and Mrs W L Jackson.

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION EXPIRES on the date stamped in the space below. To those who pay promptly in advance the subscription price is $1.25 per year. The price is $1.50 if paid at end of year. The paper is not sent to subscribers who are more than one year in arrears.

Harness Shop

W A Cross has opened a harness shop in Scio one door north of the Scio Feed Co's store and is prepared to do repair work of all kinds. A little later he expects to put in a complete line of harness. Give him a call when anything in his line is needed. All work neatly and promptly done at reasonable prices.

For Sale

40 acres, 5 in cultivation, young orchard, good buildings, 3 springs, 5 cows, 2 heifers, 1 bull, team, harness, 2 wagons, carriage. Some tools, telephone, household goods, flock of poultry, all for $2000. Would trade land for smaller tract nearer town.

J D Grimes
Scio R. 1.

Dance May 22

A dance will be given Saturday evening, May 22 at the Richardson Gap T J S and Z C B J hall. Good music will be furnished and a good time assured to all. Lunch will be served at midnight. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

J T Funk is the latest in this neck of the woods to invest in a new Ford Car.

Nick Gimer and Harry Shanks of near Stayton were trading with Scio merchants Monday.

Rolla Harold and Liston Darby of Kingston drove down Tuesday to trade with Scio merchants.

The K of P band /boys are figuring on giving an entertainment in the near future to raise funds for the purchase of uniforms.

Look over your mowers, rakes, and binders, no matter what make and see what extras you need. I will get them for you if I have to send to the factory for them. I can get anything you need, even if the machines have been discontinued. N I Morrison—Scio Ore.

Drs Lowe & Turner the eye specialists will be in Scio every six weeks. Wait for them.

All of our subscribers who have received the magazines seem to like them. Some have told us they don't see how we can do it. When renewing your subscription to the News don't forget to ask about the magazines.

Oregon News Notes

Oregon Development News in Line of Industries, Payrolls, and Products of Labor and Enterprise.

April wheat shipments from Portland 916,915 bushels.

Silverton would improve church street with concrete.

Bandon has sold $14,000 bonds for a new school house.

Forest Grove will improve streets with macadam at $1.00 to $1.50 a foot.

Harrisburg—Linn and Lane counties to build $60,000 bridge here.

Marshfield—Perry and Nicholson, large new furniture store opened.

Wherever made responsible as common carriers jitneys drop out.

Independence—Valley and Siletz railroad will expend $300,000 on extension.

Regulations of jitneys proceed along three lines: A monthly license, a surety bond to protect passengers against accidents, and a designated route of travel.

A $20,000 fish ladder at Oregon City that kills all the salmon instead of letting them come over the falls is an example of the state doing things.

Roseburg—Engineer for Kendall Bros. designing $500,000 sawmill.

Eugene—two rooms and a furnace ordered added to high school.

Portland—A new St Helen's hall will rise on site of barned buildings.

Lake county will build a hospital at Lakeview.

The Fort Rock-Bend highway is to be built.

The new cannery at The Dalles is to be ready by June 10th.

Portland municipal wood yard finds itself with 10,000 cords of wood on hand that competes with farmers and wood dealers.

At Olympia a socialist mayor and jury confiscate the city water plant at half value fixed by all the engineers.

C D Lamsen, Gold Beach, will build a 30-room hotel at Brookings.

D R Wiggins, Portland may operate the Glendale box factory.

North Plains is struggling for a cheese factory.

North Bend—L J Simpson will build $8000 dairy barn at Shore Acres.

A game warden closed the Barry Crab cannery at Empire on a technicality. More laws and officials, the less industries and higher taxes.

St Johns—Star Sand & Co. will erect $35,000 dock.

Condon—contract let to Everett Logan for $2750 Congregational church.

Litigation, ending, the Porter Bros. sawmill on the Siuslaw will operate.

L J Simpson who built North Bend and operates large industries, resigned as mayor and will

Violin and Piano Recital

Charles South violinist, and Mrs Annette Stoddard, pianist, will appear at Wesely's new theatre in Scio in a recital Monday evening June 7. Both are artists of ability in their respective lines, and a rare treat is in store for Scio music lovers. Tickets will be sold at 50c and may be had at J F Wesely's grocery or of Miss Bertha Smith. This entertainment will be a good one and should receive the hearty support of everyone in this vicinity who is interested in good music.

Socialist Picnic

Sunday June the 13th 1915 at Richardson Gap half 5 miles east and 1 mile north from Crabtree. Speaking will begin at 1 p m by Mrs Kate Sadler of Tacoma and Mr Thomas Lewis of Portland. Music by band, refreshments will be served on the grounds, a good time is assured. Everybody is welcome.

Committee.

Dressmaking

I wish to announce to the ladies of Scio and vicinity that I am prepared to do dressmaking at my residence one door north of the Scio Feed Co's store.

Mrs W A Cross.

A L Arnold and Oscar Eichinger went to Albany last Thursday on a short business visit.

Frank Cary and Con Donahue went to Newport this week as delegates from the Scio lodge to attend the big Odd Fellows convention which convenes there Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

become a candidate for Congress.

Raising deer for Portland market is new Douglas County industry.

Inman mine, Curry County, made clean-up of $15,000 gold for winter's work.

Flour going from Seattle to Frisco via Hill line of steamers.

Grants Pass—Twohy Bros. expect to build 40 miles of railroad this year.

John Roesch of La Grande plans to build $20,000 hotel at Union.

Rev Stewart says State Senate should be abolished. Oregon voted "NO" on that.

Eugene people moving for a new twelve-room grade school.

$5000 to be spent on highway Grants Pass to Crescent City.

Florence voted $5000 to build addition to school house.

Governor of Idaho may call special session to enact state aid plan for constructing railroads.

Eugene—Congregational Church made 250 per cent profit on 50c dinner.

Possibly About You

Mrs Zelfa Cross of Independence is visiting at the home of O B Cyrus this week.

Ben Thayer returned Tuesday evening from a few days visit with friends at Hubbard.

Violin for sale—Cost $30, several years ago; a bargain at $15. Enquire at News office.

Miss Nellie Buckner of Independence is visiting with her sister, Miss Daisy Buckner and other relatives here this week.

Mrs Walter Bilyeu went to Newport Sunday evening to be in attendance there this week at the Rebekahs convention.

Chas Wesely sold his Michigan car to James Arnold a few days ago and bought a Reo which he drove in Tuesday.

Best quality butter wrappers, neatly printed to conform with the law, 60c per hundred at the News office.

The News is asked to announce that all interested parties are requested to meet at Providence on May 28 for the purpose of cleaning up the cemetery and also the church.

John Brock and Frank Shindler, two prosperous farmers of the Richardson Gap neighborhood were transacting business in town Tuesday. The News acknowledges a brand new subscription from Mr Shindler.

Mrs Mary Scholl of Salem is here this week visiting her friend Mrs Frank Milkulka. She called at the News office Tuesday and made arrangements for this paper to keep her posted on Scio happenings for the next year.

The Knights of Pythias Band of Scio has been engaged by the Fair Association to furnish the music at the Linn County Fair, September 8, 9, and 10. As the boys are there with the goods this assures first class music for the big annual event.

T J Munkers, who recently returned from the California expositions with his family, came up from Portland on business Tuesday, making the trip with Chas Wesely in his new Reo, and had more excitement than on the whole California trip. He reports that in point of attendance both the San Francisco and San Diego fairs are a disappointment. He was favorably impressed with the buildings at San Diego which are built for permanency, and one of the most interesting features of the San Francisco fair he found to be the Panama Canal which occupies five acres and is a faithful representation of the big ditch itself.