F M Brown, publisher of the Brownsville Times, is a candidate for the office of State Game Warden. As an exchange has aptly put the matter, his qualification by nature and experience to fill the position satisfactorily; he has been endorsed by many Rod and Gun clubs, by most of the newspapers in the Willamette Valley, by most of the State officers, by many county officers throughout Western Oregon, and by many state and county committeemen of his political party. He should be appointed.

The Transylvania with 900 passengers, safely dodged the submarines and landed at Glasgow, Scotland the first of the week. However, passengers said a torpedo only missed the boat Sunday by 30 yards, which was plenty close enough.

Classified laws relating to state and county officials, a 400 page book, has been received at this office. Copies may be had by interested parties on request to Harvey Wells, state insurance commissioner, Salem.

It's a good thing that Bruce Ismay wasn't on the Lusitania when she went down, as he would probably have trampled several women and children to death making his getaway.

Ahboob, Bil Bryan

Ahboob Bil Bryan (may his jaw have rest)
Awoke one midnight from a dreaming
And in the alcove where he kept his thinks—
Likewise his grape-juice and some other drinks—
He saw an angel in a nighty clad,
Who banged a battered Remington like
mad,
Excessive speech had made Bil Bryan
bold,
So in his deep Chautauqua voice he trolled:
"What typest thou?" The Vision snarled,
"Go hence!
I write the names of future presidents."
"And is mine one?" asked Ahboob,
"Nope, not yet."
Replied the writing Angel. "You should fret."
And Ahboob, though his inmost soul
was vexed,
Just swallowed hard and muttered,
"Put me next."
The Angel wrote and beat it. The next night
He came illumined by a tungsten light,
And gave to Ahboob, with a loud tee-hee
A carbon copy of his screed, and—Gee!
Bil Bryan's name stood first of any man's

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO

Scio Press, May 19, 1893

The people of Lebanon are the first in the field with their arrangements to celebrate the 4th of July.

Albany's new postoffice building for which the cellar is being now excavated, is to be a two-story structure 75x100 feet.

James J Corbett, the champion of the world in pugilism is billed to appear in Albany Saturday night. He is not appearing as a pugilist, but as an actor in a veritable play and winning no small fame as an actor.

A phonograph has been on exhibition in Albany for a number of days. While there we had the pleasure of listening to a selection as rendered by Gilmour's famous band, some orchestra music and vocal selection all of which was rendered in eastern cities and bottled up in a manner and reproduced in Albany by this wonderful machine.

Everybody, including the women and children, are making garden nowdays.

Gov. Penneyer set his pardon mill agoing the other day and before he could stop it, six pardons were ground out. If it cost no more to get persons into the pen than it does to get them out a-la-Penneyer, our taxes would be reduced more than on half.

Scio school bonds are advertised in the Oregonian, to bear interest at the rate of 5 1/2 percent. Bids will be opened by the board of directors on June the 15.

A hop dealer was in town Tuesday. We understand that he offered some of the growers 14cts per pound for their product and was willing to contract for the next crop at that figure.

Daily Albany Herald and Santiam News $2.50 for one year.

Best Thing for a Bilious Attack.

"On account of my confinement in the printing office I have for years been a chronic sufferer from indigestion and liver trouble. A few weeks ago I had an attack that was so severe that I was not able to go to the case for two days. Failing to get any relief from any other treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Tablets and the next day I felt like a new man." writes H. C. Bailey, Editor Carolina News, Chapin, S. C. Obtainable everywhere.

Curing a Mule.

A mule in a pack train which was usually loaded with salt discovered that by lying down when fording a certain stream and allowing the salt to dissolve he could lighten his burden. The muleteer once loaded him with sponges instead, which absorbed water when he lay down in the stream and made his burden four-fold heavier. The mule was cured of his smartness.

Whooping Cough.

"When my daughter had whooping cough she coughed so hard at one time that she had hemorrhage of the lungs. I was terribly alarmed about her condition. Seeing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so highly recommended, I got her a bottle and it relieved the cough at once. Before she had finished two bottles of this remedy she was entirely well." writes Mrs. S. F. Grimes, Crooksville, Ohio. Obtainable everywhere.

GOOD SUGGESTION TO SCIO PEOPLE

It is surprising the amount of old, foul matter the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc, known as Adler-I-ka, drains from the system. This remedy became famous by curing appendicitis and acts on BOTH the upper and lower bowel so thoroughly that ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. We are mighty glad we are Scio agents for Adler-I-ka. E C Peery, druggist.
