

BUTTER WRAPPERS

The state law requires that all dairy butter offered for sale at a dealers, must be enclosed in a paper wrapper on which is printed the number of ounces of butter, full weight and by whom made.

We are equipped to print these wrappers to comply with the state law and at prices you cannot afford to ignore, and when used they make a very neat and attractive package.

Greatly Benefitted by Chamberlain's Liniment

"I have used Chamberlain's liniment for sprains, bruises and rheumatic pains and the great benefit I have received justifies my recommending it in the highest terms," writes Mrs Florence Slife, Wabash, Ind. If you are troubled with rheumatic pains you will certainly be pleased with the prompt relief which Chamberlain's liniment affords. Obtainable everywhere.

Jas. Kruml Suicides

James Kruml committed suicide last Thursday at his home near town by taking strychnine. Financial worry is given as the cause of the rash act. The deceased who was 34 years of age, leaves a widow and three small children, besides his father and mother and brothers and sisters. The family came to this country from Bohemia when he was quite young. Interment was made at Franklin Butte cemetery Friday afternoon.

When in need of printing give the News office a call. First class work and prices right. We make a specialty of letter heads, envelopes, statements, bill heads, sale bills, business cards, ladies calling cards, and in fact commercial printing of all kinds.

MILITARY BANDS.

Music Has a Marked Effect Upon the Men Who Do the Fighting.

Regiments without military bands do not fight as well, do not march as well and are not as contented and cheerful in camp as the men of the regiments which have bands.

Earl Roberts said in a speech shortly before his death:

"I can speak from my own experience of what use a regimental band is to a regiment. I have seen men weary, worn out with fatigue, hot and smothered with dust, brighten up the moment they heard the tap of the drum, indicating that the band was going to play a lively quickstep. It has the greatest effect on the men in camp and in quarters."

One of the most delightful bits of verse ever written is Henry Newbolt's description of how a squadron of "weary big dragoons," whipped, retreating and discouraged, was drifting through a wrecked French town when one of the company found a child's toy drum, and another found a penny tin whistle in the ruins of a toy shop. The one with the whistle struck up the "Marseillaise," and the one with the drum beat time to it. The straggling squadron halted, turned, reformed and to the beating of the child's drum and the strains of the tin whistle marched to victory.

Every one has read that stirring poem, "The Relief of Lucknow," of the Scotch regiment that had been besieged and starved so long, that had staved off massacre for so many days that it had about lost hope, when a Scotch maid heard away off in the distance the faintest note of a bagpipe.

"Dinna ye hear it?" she screamed and threw herself down with her ear to the ground. Soon they all heard it, the bagpipes of the regiment coming to rescue them.

It was the pipes of the Highlanders! And now they played "Auld Lang Syne." It came to our men like the voice of God. And they shouted along the line.

Funny For Her.

A New England lad was intently watching his aunt in the process of making pies and cake. He seemed very much inclined to start a conversation, an inclination, however, which the aunt in no way encouraged. She continued in silence to assemble the ingredients of a mammoth cake.

"Tell me something funny, auntie?" finally ventured the boy. "Don't bother me, Tommy," said the aunt. "How can I when I am making cake?"

"Oh, you might say, 'Tommy, have a piece of the pie I've just made.' That would be funny for you."—Exchange.

Hard Life of English Cabinet Men.

The laboriousness of a cabinet minister's life was realized by John Bright, who declared that a man in office required "very strong health, a very excellent stomach and a conscience that does not trouble him." Peel, according to Greville, when resigning the leadership, begged the queen never to recall him, since he could not forget that Pitt, Fox and Canning had all died in office, the victims of overwork and worry, and that, worse still, Lord Castlereagh and Lord Liverpool had also died in office, the one a maniac and the other an idiot.—London Chronicle.
