

BUTTER WRAPPERS

The state law requires that all dairy butter offered for sale at a dealers, must be enclosed in a paper wrapper on which is printed the number of ounces of butter, full weight and by whom made.

We are equipped to print these wrappers to comply with the state law and at prices you cannot afford to ignore, and when used they make a very neat and attractive package.

Possibly About You

Mrs Labonta of Tacoma, Wash came the last of the week for a visit at the home of her father, Ed Daley.

Mr and Mrs Reynolds of Portland motored up Sunday for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs Ed Daley.

Mrs Lydia Robertson of Roseburg is visiting with her sister, Mrs Alex McDonald, this being their first meeting for several years.

Dr Turner, the eye specialist, made his regular professional visit to Scio yesterday. His next trip here will be early in September.

Mrs Mary T Littlefield, Pythian Chief, of Portland paid the Scio lodge an official visit the first of last week and visited with her friend, Mrs Walter Bilyeu, until Thursday morning.

Mr and Mrs Fred Ficklin returned to their home at McMinnville Sunday morning after a few days visit at the home of the former's sister, Mrs Walter Bilyeu.

Miss Elsie Thayer is learning the mysteries of running the postoffice, having started in Wednesday morning. This is the preliminary step to Miss Daisy Buckner, postmaster, taking a vacation later on.

S L Chrisman, aged 70, died at St Mary's hospital June 30 of hardening of the arteries. Deceased has two nephews residing at Scio, who will come to this city to make arrangements for the funeral. The body will probably be shipped to Thomas for burial.—Albany Democrat.

Traveling Man's Experience

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from 4 a m to 6 p m without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live, that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so I gave the hotel porter 50c and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to the directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At 5 o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H W Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.

Look over your mowers, rakes, and binders, no matter what make and see what extras you need. I will get them for you if I have to send to the factory for them. I can get anything you need, even if the machines have been discontinued. N I Morrison—Scio Ore.

My Auto, 'Tis of Thee

My auto, 'tis of thee, short cut to poverty—of thee I chant. I blew a pile of dough on you two years ago and now you refuse to go, won't or can't. Through town and countryside, you were my joy and pride; a happy day. I loved thy gaudy hue, thy nice white tire so new, but now you're down and through in every way. To thee, o'd rattle-box, came many bumps and knocks; for thee I grieve. Badly thy top is torn, frayed are thy seats and worn; a whooping cough affects thy horn, I do believe. Thy perfume swells the breeze while good folks choke and wheeze, as we pass by. I paid for thee a price, 'twould buy a mansion twice, now all are peddling "ice"—I wonder why? Thy motor has the grip, thy spark plug has the pip, and woe is thine. I too, have suffered chills, ague and kindred ills, endeavoring to pay my bills since thou wert mine. Gone is my bank roll now. No more 'twould choke the cow, as once before. Yet if I had the mon, so help me John—amen, I'd buy a car again and speed some more.—Exchange.

Easy Money.

Burglar—Come, now, I just beat up the janitor and got upstairs here, and I want your purse, quick.

Flatdweller—You beat up the janitor?

Burglar—Yes. Here, where are you going?

Flatdweller—It's all right. I haven't any purse myself, but I'm sure I can raise one among the tenants in a very few minutes.—New York Times.

Disguised Hands Always Bad.

"Here is a truth," says a handwriting expert, "that is as widespread as the ether: A disguised hand always tries to be poorer than the real hand. That axiom is a great help to us experts. For instance, when a letter done in a disguised hand is brought to us we always know that the writer of the letter is in a higher station than the hand would lead us to infer; hence in our detective work we are able to save much valuable time by eliminating all persons socially below the appearance of the letter and concentrating our attention on those only who are above it."

The Regular Thing.

The little boy felt that at last his conduct entitled him to recognition and reward.

"See here, mother," he said, "are you going to buy me that goat?"

"Not just now, Willie," she replied.

"Of course not! Of course not!" exclaimed Willie bitterly. "That's always the way. No matter how good I am, all you will do about this goat business is to let me be one."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Simple Kindness.

The spirit of unwearyed good will is the great lifting power of the world. When we can do nothing else to cure wrongs, lessen burdens or mend life's hard places for weary feet, we can at least be kind—kind in face, voice and deed. And how many dark places would brighten, heavy loads grow light and new courage come to the heart if only simple kindness were the rule of earth!

A Distinction.

Bobby, a country lad of six, presenting himself one day in a state of dust and disorder even worse than usual, was asked by his mother if he would not like to be a little city boy and always be nice and clean in white snits and shoes and stockings. "They're not children; they're pets!" Bobby answered scornfully.—London Mail.

Benefited By Chamberlain's Liniment

"Last winter I used Chamberlain's liniment for rheumatic pains, stiffness and soreness of the knees and can conscientiously say that I never used anything that did me so much good." Edward Craft, Eiba, N Y. Obtainable everywhere.
