Look over your mowers, rakes, and binders, no matter what make and see what extras you need. I will get them for you if I have to send to the factory for them. I can get anything you need, even if the machines have been discontinued. N. I. Morrison—Scio Ore.

Attention Farmers

Owing to a good many sending away for their twine one does not know how much will be needed and my supply is limited. Last year I had to carry over a lot, but I don't intend to let it occur again, so if you want twine place your order at once and state when you will want it, otherwise you may have to rustle or wait for it. The wise will order at once as my supply is getting less every day. N. I. Morrison.

Benefited By Chamberlain's Liniment

"Last winter I used Chamberlain's liniment for rheumatic pains, stiffness and soreness of the knees and can conscientiously say that I never used anything that did me so much good." Edward Craft, Elba, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

Social Gathering

At the fine farm home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gaines on Sunday, July 11, some 40 neighbors were invited to be their social guests and to participate with them in an ice cream and cake festival. They have the happy faculty of making everyone feel at home and life worth living to be associated with them.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. Sargent and daughter, Miss Dappa Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brock and daughters Myrtle, Mable and Eunice and son Jack, Mr. and Mrs. H. Freeman, daughter Olive and son George, Jay Shanks, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Arnold and three sons, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hassler and daughter Pearl, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. Chet Warren and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Sutherland and daughters Dellarea and Bonita, Claud Asher, Albert, Axtel and Vic Carlson and Matt Smith whose heart is always in the right place, was busy giving his friends joy rides, bringing some of them in his auto, and taking them home in the evening.

Everybody had a royal good time and were filled to their stuffed capacity with ice cream, cake, pie, lemonade and candy.

Misses Myrtle and Mable Brock entertained the guests very pleasantly with some nice instrumental music, Myrtle at the organ and Mable on the violin. Also J. T. Brock on the violin and Miss Dappa Williams at the organ, rendered several choice selections, closing with "Home, Sweet Home."

In departing all wished Mr. and Mrs. Gaines many long years of life and unalloyed happiness and prosperity, feeling "blessed be the tie that binds" friends in social love.

Card of Thanks

Words cannot express our appreciation of those friends who have shared with us the lonely vigils by the bedside of our loved one. No sweeter memory can live in any heart than the memory of their untiring devotion to the one who has just left us. The waves of sorrow break upon every shore, and we can but hope that friends as true may gather around each one of them should sorrow invade their homes.

Mrs. Walter C. Miller

Traveling Man's Experience

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from 4 a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live, that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so I gave the hotel porter 50c and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to the directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At 5 o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.
