SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

Mr Editor Santiam News: The old Pie Eater has come to life again and is as happy as a June bug. The old farm is nicely floating along like a leaf on a stream over eddies and riffles, with future prospects never brighter, good health, good crops, plenty to eat and nothing to wear.

Mr and Mrs Clarence Lovejoy are with us and seem to be enjoying life immensely.

Mrs Rebecca Morris who recently moved over from Albany to make her home in Scio, is among the best people in town. She is now visiting with her sister, Mrs S W Gaines.

Last reports from Uncle Geo Bilyeu and wife who are at Breitenbush hot springs, is that they are enjoying the blessing of health and their lovely outing along with some 60 more sick people who all seem to be improving in health.

Hay making and hauling in is now the order of the day as the weather is ideal for work, and harvesting is moving into line with prospects for a bountiful yield, making everybody happy to know that grub will be plentiful.

Mrs Clara Griffin who has been ailing for a long time is now on the mend and is able to be up part of the time.

Dist 77 now has a Sunday school, organized, which meets each Sunday at 2 p m.

Mrs Newton Crabtree who has been ill for some three months with swollen glands of the throat and neck is still in a critical condition and suffers quite a lot of pain. The doctors differ as to the nature of the complaint, but none seem to give her any relief.

Autos are very numerous of late and go by every day, head and tail up, snuffing smoke out behind.

Lyman Smail was up home Sunday with a load of his lady friends. He has a job on the railroad.

Himalaya berries are ripe at the Santiam Farm and the Pie Eater thinks they are superior to any other. I can highly recommend them to anyone wishing berries, at 15c per gal, until Oct. 31.

The Farmers Educational Co-operative Union is progressing nicely with new members adding their names and helping to roll the big wheel steadily along. It is pulling the farmers out of the mire and the clay and they are now busy making out orders for the winters supply of goods and groceries to be sent direct to the manufacturers, which will no doubt aggregate some $2,000 and will make a saving of about $500.

David Horseburgh has his new stock barn about completed and is filling it with hay.

There has been a little disturbance among the people over the Canada thistle question as orders have been issued by the Court, ordering them all cut at once, which is working quite a hardship on some as there are hundreds of acres along Crabtree creek.

Mrs Effie Hart of Portland came up last week on business at Lebanon and for a visit with her sister Miss Jessie Bilyeu.

Dave Bilyeu returned home Saturday from Lebanon where he has a contract for hauling wood. Dave is a rustler.

Wm Green and two sons called on the Pie Eater for a social chat Sunday afternoon after attending Sunday school.

Mrs Lizzie Crabtree and Mrs John Wesely of Scio came out to the Farm Saturday after berries.

LACOMB NEWS ITEMS

Geo McLeod and family are enjoying a visit with his sister, Mrs Ashbaugh, of Denver, Colo, who arrived here Saturday.

There may be lots of unemployed in some parts of the country but there were none around here last week. Everybody is as busy as the old cow's tale.

The contractors began work last week on the new school house to be built at Lacombe this summer. It will contain three rooms, one room being built jointly by the Green Mountain and Lacombe districts for High School purposes.

A Eugene man was in this vicinity last week arranging to harvest a large quantity of the evergreen blackberries which grow in such profusion in certain localities. He expects to employ twenty-five pickers.

Mrs C E Nolan visited last week with her daughters at Stayton and Crabtree.

Fern Ridge is getting to be a clover country. Nearly every farm has a clover field or two and for quality and quantity it can't be beat anywhere.

Lacombe Local No. 103, F E & C U of A met Saturday night and initiated a class of four in the mysteries and teachings of their order.

The ladies of the Union will give an ice cream social on the evening of August 14. Everybody cordially invited.

The question of a new hall is now being agitated and we are in hopes that before the end of the year we will have a home of our own in which to meet.

Nearly every week a bill of merchandise is ordered by the Union. Sometimes only a few dollars worth of miscellaneous articles; but we have learned that it is not necessary to have a real large order to make a substantial saving. That is really keeping money at home.

Broad Brimmed Hats.

Toward the end of the thirteenth century big broad brimmed hats were fashionable in Austria. They were of such huge dimensions that a face under one of them could not be recognized. A poem written by Johannes Hadlaub expresses disgust with the style and the hope that the hats might be consigned to the Danube "so that the pretty faces of our women might once more become visible."—Exchange.

He Thought Them High.

"Where is your high school?" asked the stranger in town.
"Which one?" asked the pompous looking citizen addressed.
"Why, have you more than one high school?"
"Oh, yes; we have two schools, each three stories high."—Yonkers Statesman.

Benefited By Chamberlain's Liniment

"Last winter I used Chamberlain's liniment for rheumatic pains, stiffness and soreness of the knees and can conscientiously say that I never used anything that did me so much good." Edward Craft, Eiba, N Y. Obtainable everywhere.
