SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

John Swan and wife of Portland, who were on their return trip up the McKenzie, visited Mr and Mrs S W Gaines the last of the week and left Sunday morning for their home. They have made the whole trip in their auto.

The Pie Eater and good wife gathered over a gallon of fine Oregon strawberries, far superior to the spring crop for flavor.

Mrs Horsburgh gave birth last Sunday to a fine baby girl. At last reports both are doing fine.

John South and wife of Independence, old time residents of the Providence neighborhood, have been visiting at the Santiam Farm. Mrs South is a half sister to S W Gaines. John has been in poor health for the past three years and the doctors seem to do him no good. They also visited his uncle, Jess Beard of Scio.

Mrs Newton Crabtree is still in failing health. Hopes are yet entertained for her recovery, but is somewhat doubtful.

John Swan took Job Crabtree out Saturday for his first auto ride. He is now 86 years old and was as much excited as if there had been ten bronchos hitched to the auto. There was a culbert out which caused Mr Swan to run off into a ditch and frightened Uncle Job so bad he thought it time to pray for the last time.

The Santiam Farm will have plenty of Himalaya berries up to the first of October at 15 cents per gallon on the vine. He also has three and a half tons of barley hay for sale at $10. per ton, if sold at once; also rhubarb by the ton at 1 1-2 cent per lb.

C E Hout of Corvallis erects 2-story brick 50 by 100 feet.

Play Was Fine

"Jim the Westerner" which was given here last Saturday evening for the benefit of the Linn County Fair, was by far the best home talent play that has ever been given in Scio. The cast was composed of Mr Waltemeyer, Jack Ownbey, Dr and Mrs E H Hobson, Mr and Mrs J S Sticha, Miss Vella Brenner, Forest Woodmansee and R M Cain.

It is planned to put the play on in the next three weeks at Crabtree, Jordan and Stayton. These places are to be congratulated, as the play is better than the usual road productions put on by all professional casts in small towns.

Mr Waltemeyer is an actor of ability and the support given him in this play by the local people should be a matter of pride to them and their friends, as there is not a weak member in the cast.

Christian Church

The minister will speak both morning and evening next Sunday as usual. The morning subject will be, "The Teacher and His Authority," which will be the first of a series of sermons on "Fundamentals of the Kingdom of God." In the evening he will speak on "The Rich Young Ruler." Everybody welcome at these services.

Willard Hayes, Minister.
