The matter on this page should have appeared in last week's issue but was received from the linotyper after the papers were printed and mailed.

FOR SALE—10 head of hogs. B. M. Myers, 2 miles N. E. of Scio. 1-1 pd.

Attention is called to the Farmers' Union county directory which appears elsewhere in this issue.

Mrs. R. Shelton went to Portland Monday for a few days' visit with friends and relatives.

Dr. Prill performed a surgical operation on Master George Kukacka Tuesday morning for appendicitis. The little fellow is reported as getting along fine.

Miss Lola Kershner of Port Allegheny, Pennsylvania, arrived here the first of the week for an indefinite visit at the home of her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Prill.

Dr. Prill reports the following births: October 3, to the wife of Alvin Tucker of Marion, a boy. October 6, to the wife of John Wesely, a boy.

Mr. Acton, manager of the dental department of the Woodard Clarke Drug Co. of Portland, came up last Thursday evening and spent a few days with his friend, Dr. T. K. Sanderson.

Jno. A. Beard and family returned to Portland Monday after a visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Beard. He is employed at the U. S. Custom House in Portland where he has been for the past 20 years.

The date on the Industrial Fair ribbons was erroneously printed, 1914. The new ribbons have arrived and all exhibitors may exchange their ribbons for those reading 1915 by calling at the office of the President, Dr. A. G. Prill.

Albert Young's horse which was tied back of the K. P. Hall Tuesday afternoon decided life was too tame and started in to create a little diversion, in which it succeeded. The animal kicked and plunged until it broke loose, when it jumped out of the shafts and careened south on Main street across the bridge, turning east at the telephone office and wound up on the sidewalk in front of the Parker hospital where it laid down until the harness was loosened. Little damage was done except to the horse's temper and two boxes of peaches which were distributed impartially over town.

Rudolph Wesely and family left here Monday for Green Bay, Wisconsin, where they expect to spend the next year providing they don't freeze their ears so solid that a trip to the Willamette Valley will be necessary to thaw them out. Mr. Wesely has leased his farm here for a year to a Mr. Miller and his friends will all wish him a royal good time while away, as he has surely earned a vacation by hard work and strict attention to business. Mrs. Wesely's cousin, Ed Craynik, of Portland, took them down in his auto on the first lap of their journey.

SCHOOL NOTES

Prof. O. V. White made a business trip to Albany Monday afternoon.

The Glee Club has been reorganized this year under the leadership of Miss Berryman. New officers were elected as follows:

President—Ledmela Kukacka.
Secretary—Inez Hiron.
Treasurer—Lizzie Smith.

The three Domestic Science classes have been canning fruit and making jelly for the fair exhibits next year.

Several of the Scio students attended the State Fair last week.

There is an unusual interest in the High School this year, especially among the seniors, on account of the prizes offered in the different lines of work.

The High School organized a literary society and the following officers were elected:

Lillie Sims—president.
Sylvia Cooch—vice-president.
Ethel Carson—secretary.
Gail Jones—sergeant-at-arms.
Miss Berryman—critic.

A committee was appointed by the officers to draw up a constitution.

Vada Holt paid a visit to the high school Tuesday with Gladys Jones.

It is hoped that Ada Thayer will soon be able to return to school.

Ethel Carson had her lessons unusually well Friday afternoon, as Earl Parker was a High School visitor.

Mr. Benner was here Monday in the interest of the Albany Fair.

The following pupils enlisted in the lower grades last week:

Levern Crabtree, Verl Gooch, Orville and Zennie Bilyeu, Eddie Ambrosek, Mildred Crabtree and Orela Galschweid.

George Kukacka left school on account of sickness.

The Grammar Department opened with an overflow and the sixth grade was removed to the intermediate room. There are now thirty pupils in this department.

Misses Myrtle Knauf and Nettie Meritt were visitors this week.

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

The pie social Friday night was a grand success, as all the pies, 31, sold in five minutes, and many called for more, as half were disappointed.

Mr. Howard and family of Crabtree came up Sunday afternoon in their auto for a supply of grapes at Santiam Farm at $1 a bushel.

Geo. Bilyeu, wife and family drove over to Stayton Thursday to lay in their winter's supply of woolen goods from the factory.

Three young hunters from Scio made a grand mistake on a hunting trip last week and made a raid on Mr. Stewart's melon patch, thinking there were no one in sight, not realizing Mr. Stewart had his eye on them. After securing all they wished they slipped off in the brush and were having a time when Mr. Stewart was on them. He asked how they liked them when the boys looked for the ground. He would have given them all they wanted, but no more stealing.

Geo. Bilyeu and wife were Albany visitors Friday.

The Farmers' Union met Sunday with a full house, and the shoe men were there with a fine line of shoes at eye-opening prices, and were liberally patronized for over $100 worth of shoes.

A nice gentlemanly boy called in at the Santiam Farm who wished to get a few grapes to eat, and asked permission to get them. He was granted the privilege to go and get all he wished. While others would rather slip in under cover of darkness or in my absence and steal and waste all they can, I prefer giving to the boy who is man enough to ask for them.

PIE EATER.

N. I. Morrison and Jim Parker left Sunday morning on a few days' hunting trip in the mountains southeast of Scio. Their friends have been going on a short meat ration this week in anticipation of a feast of venison when they return.

Later—The boys returned Wednesday evening bringing home a five point buck which they brought down. The animal was in the pink of condition and dressed over 200 pounds. N. I. says they are mighty scarce in the mountains this fall.

THE PEERY PRIZE

To the graduates of Scio High School, $10 in cash and a silver medal suitably engraved, will be given for the best work in the department of History and applied civics, class work, general department, interest in student affairs and cheerfulness in the performance of duties assigned, will be considered. Interest in and knowledge of the larger social, commercial and political affairs of the community will also be considered as a requisite part of the knowledge of the student winning this prize.

Morals and intelligence are the most valuable assets of a community, but unless coupled with a working knowledge and a willingness to serve the larger interests of the community these forces become negative and valueless to those investing in the education of the community.

This prize will be given by Mrs. and E. C. Peery.

To the Public

"I feel that I owe the manufacturers of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy a word of gratitude, writes Mrs T N Witherall, Cowanda, N. Y. "When I began taking this medicine I was in great pain and feeling terribly sick, due to an attack of summer complaint. After taking a dose of it I had not long to wait for relief as it benefited me almost immediately." Obtainable everywhere.

For Sale—Remington Model 6 Typewriter in first class condition, $25. Inquire at this office.
