Born—November 16, to Mr and Mrs Floyd Shelton, an eleven pound boy, at the residence of F T Thayer in Scio.

Miss Mary Soucek of Scio and John D Tinker of Vancouver, Wash, were married by County Judge McKnight in Albany on Wednesday, November 10.

J M Lindley was called to Lebanon Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Ade, who is suffering from pneumonia. Later—Mr Lindley died Wednesday morning, and interment will be made in the Lebanon cemetery Friday.

N Young returned home from Corvallis Monday looking as fat and sassy as most kids 75 years his junior. He states that Mr and Mrs A J Johnson returned from the San Francisco fair last Thursday and report it to be some fair.

Word has been received here that Miss Burnice McDonald, formerly of Scio, was married to Edgar A Wooten at Tollison, Arizona, on November 9. They will make their home at Tollison. Mrs Wooten is remembered here as a charming young lady, and her many Scio friends join in best wishes for her happiness.

It is surprising the way people have been taking advantage of our offer of the News and Evening Telegram both one year for $3.50. Those who wish to take advantage of this cut rate must place their subscriptions with this office before December 1, as the Telegram will withdraw the offer on that date.

The father of Dr Prill died at his home at Springville, N Y, on November 3, and the following extract is taken from a paper of that place: "The funeral of John Prill, 89 years old, was held at his home on Maple Avenue Friday afternoon. He was one of the oldest members of the Masonic lodge in this part of the country and the oldest resident of this village. The local Masonic lodge had charge of the funeral. The Rev. N S Methfessel of the Presbyterian church officiated. Besides his wife he is survived by four children: Joe of Otto; Mrs Horace Van Slyke of this village; Mrs George Kershner of Port Alleghany, Pa; Dr Albert G Prill of Scio, Oregon."

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION EXPIRES on the date stamped in the space below. To those who pay promptly in advance the subscription price is $1.75 per year. The price is $1.50 if paid at end of year. The paper is not sent to subscribers who are more than one year in arrears.

Red Cross Seals

Ammunition for the fight against tuberculosis in Oregon has been received by the Oregon Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, and a call is sent out for additional recruits to handle the Red Cross Seals. One million bright little stickers are now awaiting distribution by volunteers, who are willing to devote a little time and effort to the sale so that the anti-tuberculosis work in this state may be carried a step further during the coming year. Every community should see to it that the seals are on sale there. Send your orders now to the Association, 503 Corbett Bldg, Portland.

Thanksgiving Dinner

We wish to announce that we will serve a turkey dinner Thursday, November 25, at our regular rate 35 cents per plate. Please place your order now. SCIO HOTEL.

Negro Cuts White Man

Charles Balschweid, a young man of Scio is in bed recovering from four wounds, and Bill Marshall a negro hostler, is in the Linn county jail at Albany, as the result of a fight here about 11 o'clock Saturday night. The negro is alleged to have slashed Balschweid with a pocket knife. The latter was cut three times on the left side of his chest and once in the thigh. The only serious wound is one which penetrated the chest cavity, the others all being flesh wounds. Balschweid is expected to recover if no complications set in.

Balschweid was attending a dance at the Wesley hall Saturday night and Marshall was an onlooker. A fight started outside the building after Marshall accused Balschweid of stealing some beer. It is understood that both were intoxicated.

The negro fled after the cutting but returned to town early Sunday morning and was arrested and taken to Albany by Sheriff Bodine, who was called here immediately after the fight.

At the preliminary hearing Monday Justice of the Peace Swan read the complaint charging Marshall with assault with a dangerous weapon, the latter waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury.

School Notes

Mrs O V White was a visitor in Miss Smith's room Thursday afternoon.

The Teachers Training Class took a trip last week to make observations in various methods of teaching. Three of the girls visited the Munkers school, three the Shelburn and the other four girls and Prof. White went to the Red school. All the girls say that they learned several new ideas in the line of teaching and the teachers in the different schools were praised very highly by the visitors. Mrs White took charge of the high school during Prof. White's absence.

Roy Thompson was a high school visitor last week.

A treat was in store for every one who attended the first assembly of the year. It was opened with songs by the Girls Glee Club, followed by a solo by Mrs Hobson, and selections by the Scio orchestra. Dr Wallace Howe Lee, acting president of the Albany College, gave the address to the students and visitors present, his subject being School Mortality. He gave various reasons for children leaving school and urged the pupils of the Scio school at least to try to go to college. The program closed with another selection by the orchestra.

Gladys Jones re-entered High School Monday.

The Literary Society meets Wednesday afternoon, November 24, at 2:45 p m. The following Thanksgiving program will be given:
