Owes Her Good Health to Chamberlain's Tablets

"I owe my good health to Chamberlain's tablets," writes Mrs R G Neff, Crocketon, Ohio. "Two years ago I was an invalid due to stomach trouble.
I took three bottles of these tablets and have since been in the best of health." Obtainable everywhere.

We expect to be in a position to pay more for Christmas pontry than anyone else as we don't depend on Portland for our market. It will pay you to get our prices before selling.—Seio

A traveler, finding that he had a couple of hours in Dublin, called a cab and told the driver to drive him around for two hours. At first all went well, but soon the driver began to whip up his horse, so that they narrowly escaped several collisions.

"What's the matter?" demanded the passenger. "Why are you driving so recklessly? I'm in no hurry."
"Ah, g'wan wid yer," retorted the caddy. "D'ye think that I'm going to put in me whole day drivin' ye around for two hours? Git-ap!"—Chicago News.

Tarring and Feathering.

The first recorded instance of tarring and feathering a human being was in 1189, during the time of the crusades. In that year, the first of the reign of Richard I, a law was passed that "any robber voyaging with the crusaders shall be first shaved, then hot pitch shall be poured upon him and a cushion of feathers shook over him." After this the criminal was to be put ashore at the first landing place the ship reached.

Bear This in Mind

"I consider Chamberlain's cough remedy by far the best medicine in the market for colds and croup," says Mrs Albert Blosser, Lima, Ohio. Many others are of the same opinion. Obtainable everywhere.
