River spending the holidays with her parents, Mr and Mrs J A Bilyeu.

A flurry of snow Tuesday morning was the first hint of real winter in this section. This was followed Wednesday morning by heavy frost and ice which the sun's rays failed to melt throughout the day.

Lest you forget—we say it yet —you can get four magazines for one year by renewing your subscription to the News. We want all of our old subscribers to get these magazines. We are selling the News with four magazines all one year for only $1.40.

Ed Holland and Miss Esther Roadarmal of Oregon City were married at that place last Saturday. The bride is said to be a charming and accomplished young lady. They will make their home on the Holland farm near Scio. The News joins their many friends in congratulations and best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous married life.

Six druggists of Linn county have now made application for $250 bonds, required of them under the prohibition law, to sell ethyl alcohol after the first of the year. The first are Fred Dawson of this city and S R Stevenson of Brownsville. The others who made application this afternoon are: J O Lee, of Albany; E C Peery, of Scio; L E Wallon, of Halsey; A Crandall of Brownsville. — Wednesday's Albany Herald.

Happy New Year

We wish to thank everyone that has given us a share of their patronage during the past year, which has been very satisfactory, and we ask a continuance of your valued patronage and invite as many more as see fit, to give us a share of your business.

1916 is going to be one of the most prosperous years we have ever had and I wish you all a very happy and prosperous New Year.
