

LETTERS FROM OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

BILYEU DEN ITTMS

Evaline Bilyeu and Elva Shelton went to Scio the middle of last week.

Mrs W H Grimes and Mrs Roy Dobson were visitors at the home of J D Grimes recently.

Mrs Lottie Rogers is busy nursing an ulcerated tooth which is causing her a great deal of pain.

Little Charlie Burton is worse again; too much playing around.

Sank Hannah is all smiles since his father and sister came home. He doesn't have to cook now.

Lottie Bilyeu of Albany has been visiting at the home of E Wendt. He was born and raised on the place which Mr Eichinger now owns, so he is well acquainted in this part of the world.

Mr and Mrs Brown of West Scio were visiting old friends in this vicinity recently.

The grip is trying to get the best of Mrs H E Barmester, she is hardly able to keep going.

E Wendt is on the sick list.

Mrs John Calavan visited at the C C Barmester home one day last week while Mr Calavan went to Jordan.

Mr and Mrs Peter Bilyeu were visiting at the Mike Bilyeu home recently.

Mrs Westinghouse visited at uncle Haman Shelton's Thursday.

S B Cole and wife and their son Roy and family were visitors at the home of Perry Bilyeu at Crabtree the first of the week.

J D Grimes has a patch of ground ready for kale plants. He says he wants green feed for the cows in August when the grass gets dry.

Clyde Rodgers got a cut on his lip last week, and the funny part of it is that he says it is a mystery how it happened.

An excellent example of thoughtfulness was shown a few days ago when a neighbor called Mrs Barmester by phone and said she would be over for a visit. Mrs Barmester told her she was taking the grip and she had better not come with the children and expose them for she knew it was catching, although she would enjoy the visit very much.

Tuxedo Nights by Walt Mason

When the day's work's done, and the good old sun has sunk in the well known West, then I stretch my form by the fireside warm, I sit at my ease and rest. Then I take my pipe which is mildly ripe, as the pipes of good smokers are, with a chortling soul then I fill its bowl from my glass Tuxedo jar. And I smoke at ease, and my trouble flees to the place where dead troubles go; and my worries seem, in my waking dream no longer to have a show. And I say, "Indeed, it's a noble weed that drives all the ghosts away, and clamps the lid on the cares that skid around through the busy day. The worries and woes and such things as those in the daytime leave their scar, but there's rest at night and a calm delight in my glass Tuxedo jar."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
