

The Santiam News.

VOL. XIX

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1916.

NO. 41

Possibly About You

Mr and Mrs Roe Phillips were trading in Albany Tuesday.

De Moss concert Monday evening at the school auditorium.

Mr and Mrs F T Bilyeu transacted business at the county seat Tuesday.

Variety, cleanliness, courtesy, for people who are particular.—Sanitary Market.

Bird dog pups for sale; reasonable if taken at once.—Chas Chrz, Scio, Oregon. 40t3

Mr Rorabaugh, Linn county Sunday School organizer, of Albany will be here next Sunday.

It is rumored that a new undertaking establishment will be located in Scio in the near future.

J M Lindley took David Rice to Albany Tuesday, accompanied by H S Johnston and Mrs C A Parker.

Good upright piano to trade for young cows if taken at once. Inquire of J C Mary, Lebanon, Oregon, box 165.

Mrs John Wesely and children, Mrs J N Weddle and Mrs Fred Ohlmeier went over to Albany on a shopping trip Tuesday.

W S Carpenter has just completed a concrete walk in front of his property on Wheeler street. He has also put in a walk leading from the street. Let the good work go on.

Morrison's will be headquarters for fishing supplies again this season. He has the finest and largest assortment of hooks of all kinds, lines, spinners, leaders, reels, baskets, poles. Bamboo poles 10c. 3 for 25c.

Have you noticed how the advertising columns of the News are growing of late? You will save money and secure better values if you will read these ads carefully and profit by their advice.

J D Densmore decided that he could not travel fast enough with his black driving team and traded them for a Ford Tuesday. He drove his car to Salem Wednesday morning expecting to take the train for Portland from there. He will return home the last of the week.

The News is in receipt of an anonymous article signed "Jaw Breaker." We will state again that we cannot publish unsigned articles. If anyone hasn't got the nerve to sign their name to an article as an evidence of good faith, they must not expect a newspaper to assume the whole responsibility for something which they know nothing about. Again we say, if you do not want the editor of the News to know who sends an article to this office, save your stamp.

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION EXPIRES on the date stamped in the space below. To those who pay promptly in advance the subscription price is $1.25 per year. The price is $1.50 if paid at end of year. The paper is not sent to subscribers who are more than one year in arrears.

De Moss Concert

The De Moss family of lyric bards will appear here at the School Auditorium next Monday evening at 8 p m. They will render a program of classics, folk songs and instrumental numbers. The admission charged will be the nominal sum of 15c and 25c, and is for the benefit of the High School. You cannot afford to miss this concert if you are a music lover.

Poverty Dance

A poverty dance will be given Saturday, April 29, at the T J S and Z C B J hall. Good music and good supper. Everybody cordially invited. Come one and all. Anyone dancing in good suit of clothes will be charged 25c extra.

Committee.

Notice

To parties wishing first class goat pasture for summer free for 100 head or more can obtain same of E S Oglesbee, Shelburn, Oregon. 39t3p

Santiam News and Metropolitan Magazine, both one year for $1.75.

A L Geddes was in town Tuesday on his way through to do some surveying for John Shindler. He appears very optimistic over his chances for re-election to the office of county surveyor. His announcement will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Elmo Sims' horse became tired of the monotony of waiting for Huck to sort his mail Wednesday morning, so broke loose and took a spin toward the school house. George Daley, who was passing on horseback, followed up the runaway and caught the animal. Little damage was done aside from Mr Daley's horse having a leg skinned in the melee.

MARKET REPORT

The following are cash prices quoted on Thursday of each week by our dealers:

Flour, per sack	1 30
Bran, per ton	30 00
Middlings, per ton	34 00
Chop, wheat, per ton	34 00
Chop, oats, per ton	32 00
Barley Chop	32 00
Butter, (Country) per roll	50
Butter Fat (net)	28, 31 and 34
Eggs, case count, per dozen	21
Hens, per pound	13 to 14
Geese, per pound	66
Turkeys, per pound	12
Ducks, per pound Pekin	14
Ducks, Indian Runner	12
Pork, dressed	9 1/2
Pork, live weight	8
Veal, per pound, for shipping	9

Oregon News Notes

Oregon Development News in Line of Industries, Payrolls, and Products of Labor and Enterprise.

Rich gold vein discovered in Blue River district.

Coos County Court awards $64,000 road contract between Coquille and Marshfield.

Construction work is being rushed on Grants Pass sugar factory.

Eugene firm turning out ready-cut knock-down houses.

Contracts for building two large steel ships have been awarded to Portland firms.

Newport has donated a site for kelp factory.

The Shevlin-Hixon mill at Bend with a capacity of 300,000 feet in two 10-hour shifts, although completed only three weeks ago, will increase size of plant one-third.

Salem to have new $15,000 brick business building.

Theo Roth of Salem, head of industrial department Chamber of Commerce, will establish flax industry.

Enlarged factory at Falls City to make loganberry juice being built.

Bear Creek Logging Co of Astoria starts operations to cut 50,000,000 ft.

Municipal ownership and distribution of milk supply for cities is one of the latest socialistic fads.

More sawmills opening up and increasing payrolls near Klamath Falls.

Contract let for new school building at Rickreall.

Albany would spend $5,000 on new city hall.

Jones Bros & Co of Watsonville, Cal established vinegar factory in Portland.

Roseburg to have new $15,000 Methodist church.

St Helens—McCormick shipyard to build three new vessels, two at Astoria yard.

Blake, McFall Co of Portland establishes paper box package factory.

Grange, Farmers Union and Labor Council have decided to initiate bill to bond state at 4 per cent for rural credit system to make farm loans at 5 per cent.

Work started on two-story brick business block at Gresham.

Portland manufacturers of coconut butter will build two-story factory to cost $40,000.

Corvallis architect planning new library building.

Vast soda deposits at Alkali lake near Paisley to be refined and put on market at once.

Chicago company orders 150 carloads of broccoli from here.

Baker white pine yards working day and night to keep up orders.

A 2,000,000 ft lumber carrier launched at St Helens.

Old papers 5 cents a bundle at the News office.

Will Be Here June 1 Pool Brings

Good Price

CA Everett was here last Saturday looking for a location for his drug store and meeting people to find the sentiment regarding his proposed move. The encouragement given him was such that he decided definitely while here to make the venture. He told the writer in conversation that it would probably be around five weeks before he can hope to be settled here. He has a choice of several locations, but has not decided as yet which one he will take.

In Memorium

Hall of Leone Rebekah Lodge No. 84, I. O. O. F.

Whereas the Great Ruler of the Universe has removed from our lodge, our beloved sister, Mattie F Edwards, by the messenger of death, we bow our heads in sorrow as we submit to the will of Him who holds the destinies of us all in His hands. Be it therefore resolved that the lodge has lost an upright and faithful member and sister, her daily walk and actions truly exemplifying friendship, love and truth.

Resolved, that we do truly sympathize with the grief-stricken family in their bereavement and that we commend them to our Heavenly Father who doeth all things well.

Resolved that these resolutions be spread on the records of this lodge, a copy thereof transmitted to the family of the deceased sister, and a copy published in the Santiam News.

Committee: Cora Calavan, Emma Shope, Emma Oupor.

Lost—A heavy buggy robe, between Scio and Franklin Butte cemetery.—S S Stewart.

Mrs O V White returned home Saturday evening from a few weeks visit with her parents at Forest Grove. She was ill part of the time while there and has not fully recovered yet.

E Wendt, who was trading in town last Thursday, was a caller at the News office and told us of the following remedy for rheumatism: One gallon of hard cider and 1-2 pound of Epsom Salts; take tablespoonful three times a day. A smaller amount may be made by using the same proportions. He says it will knock rheumatism sky high.

David Rice, an aged resident of Scio, was brought before County Judge D B McKnight Tuesday on a charge of insanity and upon recommendation of Dr J H Robnett, the examining physician, he was committed to the state hospital for the insane at Salem. C C Cameron of that institution arrived in the afternoon and took the unfortunate man back with him. Mr Rice is 83 years old. He has been a resident of Oregon for 60 years. Senile dementia is the technical cause given.—Democrat.

The Scio mohair pool was sold last Friday to M Sternberg & Co of Albany for 45.85 cents per pound, this being the record price paid for mohair here. The pool consists of approximately 15,000 pounds and will be delivered either at West Scio or Munkers today. The Eddyville pool sold Tuesday for 51 1-2 cents, the highest price ever paid in this state. The Farmers Union pool at Lebanon brought 48 3-8 cents last Saturday.

May Celebrate Here

Agitation has been started by the Z C B J lodge of Scio for a Fourth of July celebration to be held here. If plans mature, the Portland Athletic Club will participate; games, sports, and races will be pulled off for prizes, and all the attendant features of a first class celebration will be in evidence.

Jerome Smith was a Sunday visitor at Lebanon.

F T Bilyeu made the sale of a Ford last Saturday to Alfred Blatchford of Shelburn.

Rev H B Iler preached last Sunday afternoon at the school house two miles east of town and reports a good attendance.

W E Chrisman left Monday for Sweet Home, Cascadia and other points in that part of the county in the interests of his candidacy for commissioner.

Mrs Rebecca Morris had the misfortune to fracture a rib by falling at her home one day last week, but is now on the road to recovery.

Among the Vancouver marriage licenses in last Friday's Oregonian is that of George E Klinge of Junction City and Miss Jessie Bilyeu of Crabtree.

Clean up and Paint up time is here. Let us clean up and paint up and make our town more attractive so that new comers will be attracted enough to want to locate with us. You can get your clean up tools and the best paint to do the work with at Morrison's hardware store.

Charles H Leonard came over Tuesday evening to look after the interests of his candidacy for the office of county surveyor. Mr Leonard is a surveyor of ability and experience as is testified to by his announcement which will be found in another column.

Should Not Feel Discouraged

So many people troubled with indigestion and constipation have been benefited by taking Chamberlain's tablets that no one should feel discouraged who has not given them a trial. They contain no poison or other digestive ferments but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Obtainable everywhere.