

Stop, Look and Listen!

Farmers—Do you know that Scio has a new produce buying firm?

We are in the market for practically anything you have to sell, having an Hazelwood cream station working in conjunction with us in the same building.

Bring us your eggs, poultry, hides, veal, dressed pork, cascara bark, wool, mohair, old copper, rubber, CREAM, etc.

Our Hazelwood representative, Mr. S. E. Lowry has a reputation of being up to the minute on the handling and testing of cream and will treat you right.

When in Scio call and see us whether you have anything to sell or not.

Villa is alive again.

Do it yourself and it will be done.

A man's a man only when he is a man.

Is this your home town?
Treat it as such.

When work is a pleasure we all feel rich.

And congress, we note, is beginning to think.

Is it your flag too, or only the other fellow's?

No trouble at all to get a reputation these days. All you have to do is to be a wise one or a d. f.

What some women can't find to wear these days is quite too abbreviated to wear at all.

Some day, perhaps we will be able to view the latest moving picture sensation without a blush.

You've noticed, no doubt, that these brilliant talkers make poor listeners and mighty slim doers.

No sir, we don't want any war. It interferes with our digestion and is detrimental to baseball interests.

Statistics show that one man in every 203 is six feet tall. Does this town measure up to the standard?

Next time you meet a fellow with a prize dog, say nothing and listen. He'll do more howling than the dog.

But then, history may record that we roared into Mexico like a lion and squeaked out like a mouse.

Wise men go to the polls and vote. Foolish ones stay at home and kick at the result. Which class do you belong to?

With warm weather hopping along we may expect a noticeable impetus in the fine art of local open air courting.

There are two places where you can always bob up uninvited without being snubbed—the church and the saloon.

Villa has sworn to kill every American he meets, but he has himself killed and buried every day to prevent a meet.

We once heard of an editor who was so wise he succeeded in collecting every one of his delinquent subscriptions. But he died.

Having entered Mexico for good and sufficient reasons, multiplied a thousand fold, we should not hesitate to get out—when we get good and ready.

Splendid for Rheumatism

"I think Chamberlain's liniment is just splendid for rheumatism," writes Mrs. Dunburgh, Eldridge, N. Y. "It has been used by myself and other members of my family time and time again during the past six years and has always given the best of satisfaction." The quick relief from pain which Chamberlain's liniment affords is alone worth many times the cost. Obtainable everywhere.

Harry Lauder

World-Famous Scotch Comedian, says:

"Tuxedo,
for mild-
ness, purity
and fragrance, THE tobacco for me. In all my world wide travels I've yet to find its equal as a slow-burning, cool-tasting, sweet-flavored tobacco."

Harry Lauder

He's Searched "The Wide World"

The pipe of this king of laughmakers has left a trail of fragrant smoke clear 'round the world. Why is it he has never found "the equal" of Tuxedo? Because it has no equal—because that famous "Tuxedo Process," that makes Tuxedo mild, cool and non-biting, can't be used in any other tobacco.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo is aged three to five years.
But the big secret of that unequalled mildness, coolness and sweet flavor is the genuine "Tuxedo Process." Many have tried to imitate it—no one has succeeded.

Try Tuxedo one week and you'll say as Harry Lauder says, that it's
"THE tobacco for me."
