VOL. XIX

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1916.

NO. 43

New Partnership

Walter Bilyeu has bought a half interest in Roe Shelton's business and will be actively associated with him in the future. They have the West Scio and Munkers auto bus, several rigs for hire, and will put on another auto in the near future. Both Mr Bilyeu and Mr Shelton are too well and favorably known here to need any introduction, and it goes without saying that the new firm will enjoy a good business.

Try that famous Weatherly ice cream at Sticha's.

Lost--A heavy buggy robe, between Scio and Franklin Butte cemetery. --S S Stewart.

Fresh home made taffy and brittles at Sticha's.

Fine young cow, just fresh, for sale. --J M Lindley.

Seed potatoes and seed field corn for sale. --Mrs Anna Wann.

Tomato plants for sale. --Otis Compton.

Best quality butter wrappers, neatly printed to conform with the law, 60c per hundred at the News office.

Prof O V White, secretary, has issued a call for a meeting of the Linn County Prohibition Central Committee, to meet at the Albany city library, next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Wren C Crews, republican candidate for county surveyor of Shedd, was in town Tuesday getting acquainted with the voters. He seems optimistic over his chances for the nomination.

C C Wade and J D Densmore transacted business in Lebanon Tuesday night. Mr Wade returned home Wednesday morning while Mr Densmore went on to Brownsville.

N I Morrison has his new undertaking parlors about completed and will receive a full line of caskets in a few days. This new venture on his part is a step that meets with the approval of a large majority of the people here.

RT Smith left Tuesday evening for El Paso, Texas, on a business trip, expecting to be gone three or four months. He is also in hopes that the change will be beneficial to his health, as he has been sick most of the time this spring.

W F Gill and Mr and Mrs T A Richardson went to Portland last Friday by auto for a few days visit. Mr Gill came home on the train Monday evening and Mr and Mrs Richardson came by auto Tuesday. They report the roads as being rather slick after the heavy rains of the past few days.

County Surveyor's Notes, Public And Not Private Property

I have been asked, many times this question: "Can accurate surveys be made in Linn county without the aid of the Original Field Notes of E T T Fisher, county surveyor from 1881 to 1899; and the Government Field Notes as arranged and used by E T T Fisher?"

Coming directly to the point in this matter, I have this to say: The county has on record a copy of all the government field notes except a portion of the rough mountainous lands in the far eastern part, and these notes are on record in the U S Surveyor General's office in Portland and not owned by any individual.

Furthermore, the law specifically says: THE COUNTY MUST HAVE ON RECORD THE NOTES OF ALL SURVEYS MADE BY EVERY COUNTY SURVEYOR AND EVERY DEPUTY.

Mr E T T Fisher was without doubt the most popular, and without exception, the best county surveyor Linn County ever had, and he put more work on record than perhaps all other surveyors before and since his time. In the face of all this, who would dare accuse Mr Fisher of withholding anything from the records which was of any value or importance to the county or the people of the county. Furthermore, what man would want any surveyor to make a survey for him who relied on anything other than the original government field notes and those on record.

A County Surveyor should be a man who not only can run lines but he should also be a Civil Engineer, capable of designing bridges; planning, laying out and constructing roads, and helping the road supervisors in their important work.

I wish to say to the voters of Linn county that I am relying upon my own merits, qualifications and experience and not upon any individual's field notes to elect me to this office. I am thoroughly familiar with the manner of conducting an up to date Surveyor's office, and know both the theoretical and practical sides of engineering and surveying.

I earnestly solicit your support on May 19.

Wren C. Crews,
Republican candidate for Surveyor.

To Our Friends

Advertising is a subject to which few readers give sufficient thought, and yet it is of vital importance to them considered from an educational standpoint alone.

Do you realize that men are paid from $10,000 to $50,000 a year for their ability to write advertising copy?

You will find some of this splendid ability shown in the columns of the Santiam News, and we wish to impress upon you the fact that there is interesting, instructive and beneficial reading to be found in our advertising columns. Of course we know there are a lot of subjects discussed there that may not interest every reader; on the other hand there is not an issue that does not contain an advertisement that will give you some new idea, add to your comfort, and in all probability save you money. Take for instance the unusually fine advertisement published this week by N I Morrison about the United States cream separators. It is to your interest that you pay some attention to advertising columns.

In the advertising columns you find the story of the world's commercial progress. Ninety per cent of all the new inventions are first brought to public notice through advertising.

We want every reader to take an interest in the advertisements appearing in the News because they help to provide the financial support of this paper. Buy their goods whenever you can.

Announcement

We take this means of announcing to the people of Scio and vicinity that within the next ten days or two weeks we will have an up to date stock of funeral supplies and equipment to take care of all calling upon us for such services.

Mr Lowe will have charge of all the directing of funerals and preparing the bodies for interment. He is a man of wide experience, having been in the business a number of years. He holds a state license and a diploma from the Cincinnati College of embalming and is thorough, sanitary and neat in his practice. Satisfaction guaranteed at all times and calls answered day or night. A nice grey hearse will be placed here to be used at any and all times.

He, with his partner, Mr Morrison, a man you all know here and who needs no introduction, will be at your service in a short time.

N. I. Morrison and N. C. Lowe.
