New Drug Store Here

The last of C A Everett's drug stock and household goods arrived last Friday, and he has been busy as a beaver since, straightening up the store in the Hotel Block. He has a neat, well stocked drug store, one that would be a credit to any town, and will no doubt enjoy a liberal patronage. For a home they have rented the Pomeroy house in the south part of town.

Oregon Outdoors

The latest book issued by the Southern Pacific is their annual book "Oregon Outdoors." This book is printed in three colors on a very expensive grade of enamel paper. The cover shows two actual photographic scenes in colors, one a fisherman and the other a bathing scene. The inside color plate is of Portland, "the Rose City." The illustrations, which include over 100, are tastefully arranged in combinations of three with a light yellow border making a very handsome effect. The text is well written and contains articles of great interest of the many scenic wonders in Oregon.

Copies may be secured from any Southern Pacific agent or by addressing John M Scott, General Passenger Agent, Portland.

LARWOOD GLEANINGS

The main topic of conversation seems to be the unprecedented state of weather we are having. Other localities are less favored so we should not complain.

The people of this neighborhood were inexpressably shocked by the sudden death of Mrs Tooley who fell dead from heart failure last Wednesday. The deepest sympathy is extended to Mr Costello, her son, who is now left entirely alone.

Mrs Bert and Mrs Wm Hollis were visiting relatives and friends here last week.

The owners of lots and friends were at work at Providence cemetery Saturday cleaning the grounds and preparing for Decoration day.

Mr and Mrs W L Rooker spent the week end at Shedd visiting their daughter and family.

Marvin Davenport and wife and Miss Mable attended the circus at Albany Friday.

Mrs Miles visited her daughter Mrs Will Richardson Sunday.

A L Robbins has been on the sick list for a few days.

The transfer of the Wells Fargo express office was made last Thursday from the Pool Hall to the Densmore-Wade store. C C Wade, who was the popular and efficient agent for this company for a number of years, is again serving in this capacity.

Violin Recital June 7

Music lovers are looking forward with much pleasure to the coming violin and piano recital to be given at Scio next Wednesday evening, June 7.

From the fact that Mr South is a native of this vicinity where he spent his early boyhood, a large attendance is anticipated. He studied in leading Eastern music centers and continued his studies for a protracted period with great masters in Europe. Press reports from all Europe and America, as well as music lovers and critics, agree that this young American violinist has attained an achievement unequalled by any one of his years.

We have not learned who Mr South's pianiste will be, but it is safe to say that the program will be a real musical treat.

Don't forget the place and date—Baptist church, June 7. Admission 15c and 35c.

THOMAS CREEK JOYTINGS

Mrs Earl Calavan and children of Stayton spent last week with her parents, Mr and Mrs H E Burmester.

Mrs J W Taylor of Salem spent Sunday with her niece Mrs Will Grimes.

Mr and Mrs Ray Dobson drove to Waterloo Saturday, returning Sunday with their motorcycle, which they were compelled to leave while on a former visit.

Mrs F B Frost greatly enjoyed Sunday as all her children and grandchildren were at her home. They were: Mr and Mrs Henry Bilyeu of Scio, Floyd Shelton and family of Mt Pleasant, Ona Shelton and family and Mr and Mrs Herbert Shelton of Jordan. They had not all been at home together for some time.

Sank Hannah went to Albany Friday to take in the circus.

Miss Gladys Smith, Carl Smith, Merle Frost and Otto Cole attended the play at Scio Wednesday night and all report a fine time.

C C Burmester and family visited relatives in Stayton Sunday.

Mrs Herbert Shelton spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs J H Wortman.

J N Bilyeu closed a very successful term of school Wednesday. He was honored by a big basket dinner given by the parents and friends of the district. He returned to his home at Crabtree Thursday.

Miss Wanda and Andrew Bilyeu of Crabtree spent the first of the week with their grandmother, Mrs Nancy Bilyeu.

E Wendt is adding quite a nice look to his house by giving it a generous polish of paint. E G Balschweid of Scio is doing the work.

Mrs S B Cole and son Otto visited at Scio Thursday.
