Good Roads Day Friday, July 7

All are invited and requested to come to the Leffler hill situated one mile northeast of Scio on the Scio and Stayton road on Friday, July 7, for the purpose of improving the County road on said hill, by ditching, picking up loose rock, removing it from the road, grading, and doing any kind of work to improve it. So come out, bring your shovel, pick, crowbar, or any such tool, and your dinner. In the distribution of the road funds at our annual meeting in District 15, no funds were given for the improvement of this road, but all other roads in the district were voted money for their improvement. The people in that section of the district have always donated liberally on roads in the district; let us now help them and ourselves. Thanking you for past donations and favors, R. SHELTON, Road Supervisor District No. 15.

New Ferry for Shelburn

County Surveyor Geddes was out from Albany Wednesday and surveyed a road north from Shelburn to the Santiam river, which is in line with one on the Marion county side, surveyed the 22d inst. Work on this road will be commenced immediately. A ferry is to be built and placed at that point for the convenience of the public, which will fill a long felt want. R Shelton and T L Dugger, who were appointed as viewers, went over from Scio to be on hand when the surveying was done.
