THAT EDITORIAL DREAM

It was in the small and silent hours of the night when all our people were peacefully reposing in the slumber of innocence,

The god of dreams hovered over the editorial couch and spoke in soft and glowing tones of a vacation in the sweet summer time, with a brain relaxed from the tiresome labors of mental toil, and the green slopes of a gently flowing stream abounding with the finny tribe.

And the god whispered into the editorial ear and this is what it said:

"There are many good people who owe sundry sums on subscription. These people are honest and they mean to pay, but their minds are engrossed in weightier affairs, to the exclusion of the editor and his needs. But I, the God of Dreams, will lay the hand of wisdom and remembrance upon these good people, to the end that they will all give of their abundant store the little that is justly due. And when each good citizen has handed in the mite that is due, I, the God of Dreams, do decree that when the sunny days are come again the editor shall leave this toil for a week of rest in some far away spot, where mind and heart may regain the strength and courage for better and greater things in the days to come. And the God of Dreams will bestow his benign approval upon all delinquent subscribers who hearken unto this, his sage and earnest advice."

If ever a dream comestruer the editor prays that this may be the one. And he has faith that it will be even so.

Rings That Touch.

A clerk in a downtown jewelry store was being instructed by his new employer, "When a man comes in to buy a wedding ring always ask him if an engagement ring will be worn with it and what carat it is. The two should be the same. If the engagement ring is eighteen carats, say, and the wedding ring is fourteen, as they rub together the softer ring will show the wear and usually just under the stone, which becomes loosened. We have had to reset hundreds of diamonds for this very reason."—New York Sun.

Mistakes of Early Geography.

An American geography printed in 1812 contains this interesting information: "California is a wild and almost unknown land, covered throughout the year by dense fogs. On the northern shores live anthropophagi, and in the interior are active volcanoes and vast plains of shifting snow, which sometimes shoot up columns to inconceivable heights."

The book adds that some of these statements would seem incredible were they not so well authenticated by trustworthy travelers.

Brother Jonathan.

Brother Jonathan as a national name for the United States of America is generally understood to have originated as follows: Governor Jonathan Trumbull of Connecticut was often looked to by Washington for advice and support, and so great was the assistance rendered by him that Washington was fond of referring to him as the "first of patriots, my brother Jonathan." Very naturally the name was transferred to this country itself, and before long it was widely popular.

Why Worry?

People who worry have got a life job with no pay envelope on Saturdays. Worry is crossing the bridge before you come to it and while you're on it and after you're over. We won't worry if we stop saying "if."

WHY THE BEST OF CHEWS IS "SPEAR HEAD"

Its Rich, Sweet, Mellow Flavor Has Been Famous for a Generation

MADE OF CHOICEST RED BURLEY

The secret of tobacco satisfaction is known only to the man who chews plug tobacco. The reason is that a good chew gets right next to your taste, while the leaf in plug tobacco is in a state of fresh, juicy richness that is not possible in any other form of tobacco.

There's no tobacco in the world that can give you the hearty, wholesome flavor that you get from a delicious chew of Spear Head.

Spear Head is made exclusively of ripe, red Kentucky Burley—the most richly-flavored chewing tobacco that grows. Still more, only the very choicest red Burley leaf is used for Spear Head.

This choice leaf is selected with the most painstaking care, is stemmed by hand, is thoroughly washed free of all foreign matter, and is pressed into Spear Head plugs so slowly that not a drop of juice or an atom of the natural flavor escapes.

Try Spear Head, and you'll get a sweet, mellow, luscious, satisfying chew that cannot be obtained in any other tobacco. In 10c cuts, wrapped in wax paper.

Santiam News and Metropolitan Magazine, both one year for $1.75.

John Oupor sustained a broken leg below the knee Wednesday afternoon by his foot catching between a stump and the running gears of the wagon on which he was seated.

Leigh Hunt's Grave.

In the serene silence of Kensal Green cemetery, London, Leigh Hunt's body lies at rest. A visitor, reaching over the iron fence to part the fragrant shrubs that shadow the tombstone, reads these words:

"Write me as one who loves his fellow men."

It was his own cheerful philosophy of life that Leigh Hunt expressed through the lips of his Abou Ben Adhem, and the sentiment is very touching come upon in this way.

He's Through.

"Did you ever write any poetry?"

"Only once."

"Then your poem was rejected, I presume?"

"Yes, and so was I. You see, the poem was a proposal to the girl I was in love with, and she threw me over and married a plumber."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
