

THOMAS CREEK JOTTINGS

Picking blackberries and hops are the order of the day in this neck o' woods.

Nearly everyone has gone to the hop yards so consequently not much news to tell about the few left at home.

Conard Westenhous returned home Wednesday after helping with the white fir wood at Gilkey.

Mrs John Calavan was on the sick list last week but is greatly improved.

Mrs Jas Burton and sons Warren and Isaac left last Monday for the hop yards at Buena Vista.

Miss Evaline Bilyeu and Mrs Jake Weidman were shopping at Jordan Tuesday.

C C Burmester will have to have his name on the list again as dark caught him Thursday night before he reached home from Scio. C R has been doing so well we can't complain of him this time.

Kalan Chronic was a Jordan shopper Saturday.

Jake Wortman was trading with Scio merchants Saturday.

Mesdames Will Grimes and Clyde Rodgers spent Friday afternoon with Mrs J D Grimes.

Singing was quite well attended at Ona Sheltons' Sunday eve.

Threshing is going on full blast again. The grain is greatly damaged but will do for feed.

Mr and Mrs Geo Westenhous, daughter Lola, and son Dellis, Syd Stringer and Gladys Smith left last week for the Burton hop yard at Independence.

Chatter Box is more than busy these days with picking berries, keeping two houses and all kinds of work in general, so you will have to excuse these few items. Did not want to disappoint the editor entirely, Nibbs has gone to the hop yard so I have no substitute.
