SEEK PROGRESSIVE AND LABOR VOTES ON FALSE CLAIMS

Democrats Posing as the Enactors of Legislation Which the Indisputable Facts Show to Be of Republican Origin.

AUTHORITY ON SOUND SOCIAL LAW CITES 11 GLARING CASES

Organized Labor Resents This Deception and Running True to Form Will In November as at Many Previous Elections Indignantly Smite Those Who Without Justice Lay Claim to Its Gratitude—Even the Much-Touted Federal Reserve Law is Based Entirely on the Statistical Research of a Republican Administration.

That "No class is more instant than labor to condemn and punish those who without foundation lay claim to its gratitude" is the assertion of John Williams, ex-commissioner of labor, apropos of certain false claims set forth by Vance McCormick, Democratic National Chairman, in behalf of his party.

Chairman McCormick caused to be published in the New York Times, on July 31, an appeal for Progressive and Labor support, based on "twenty measures enacted by Congress while President Wilson has been in the White House," and for which he claims credit for the Wilson administration and asks Progressive approbation.
Commenting on this statement, the former Commissioner of Labor says:

"Students and promoters of sound social legislation will do well to examine this list for it contains a number of items of unusual interest.

"We may well believe that it was with a great deal of pride that Mr.
McCormick contemplated the record of his party and that he drew a vivid mental picture of Progressives mocking to the support of Mr. Wilson because of the things claimed on behalf of this administration.

"It is a pity that in the interest of truth, which knows neither Democrat, Progressive nor Republican, we must mar this remarkable statement. Nevertheless, it is our duty to call attention to the fact that in his effort to induce support for Mr. Wilson the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee has fallen into a glaring error. We have no desire to disparage the achievements of the Wilson administration, but we must enter emphatic protest against any attempt to pad the Record.

"Mr. McCormick claims 'twenty measures enacted by Congress while President Wilson has been in the White House.' This claim we dispute.
More than one-half are measures enacted under a Republican administration and were approved by ex-President Taft, and for others the Democratic administration deserves no credit.

"Let anyone think that this is a groundless assertion we herewith furnish the record which can easily be verified:

From among the twenty pieces of legislation cited by Chairman McCormick, I select the following:

(1) Eight hour law on government work. In effect March 1, 1913. Signed by Mr. Taft.

(2) Eight hour provision for post office clerks. In effect generally August 24, 1912.

(3) Eight hour provision applicable to the manufacture of ordinance for the government. In effect January 1, 1913.
Signed by Mr. Taft.

(4) Children's Bureau. In effect April 9, 1912. Signed by Mr. Taft.

(5) Industrial Commission Law to investigate industrial relations. In effect August 23, 1912. Signed by Mr.
Taft.

(6) The phosphorous match law.
Enacted in 1912, effective as to the importation of white phosphorous matches January 1, 1913, and as to the manufacture of such matches July 1, 1913. Signed by Mr. Taft.

(7) The Department of Labor Law creating a department with a secretary who shall be a member of the President's Cabinet. In effect March 4, 1913. Signed by Mr. Taft.

(8) The Parcel Post Law. In effect January 1, 1913. Signed by Mr.
Taft.

(9) The Federal Reserve Law which, while passed during this administration, is based entirely on the vast work of investigation and compilation done by the Monetary Commission, during the Taft Administration, and closely follows, except in certain details, the legislation recommended by that commission.

(10) The eight-hour law for the District of Columbia, was fathered and put through by a Republican, Senator La Follette.

"The anti-trust law antedates the Cleveland Administration — although President Cleveland never enforced it.
From time to time, as with all great legislative acts, it has been necessary to amend or add to it, and the antitrust law of the Wilson Administration was merely such an amendment, a logical development of the original act.

FAT MEN OF GENIUS.

Hugo, Dumas, Rossini and Balzac Were Big of Brain and Body.

It is frequently averred that fat is deadening to the brain and consequently a foe to intellectual activity. But is this so? Some of the greatest men the world has ever known were pump even to obesity.
Napoleon was decidedly rotund. Dr.
Johnson was fleshy even to flabbiness.
So was his biographical shadow, Boswell.

The world and an overcoat, it is said, could hardly contain the glory of Victor Hugo's frame. And the em-bonpoint of the author of "Les Misérables" was most richly deserved, for his favorite dish was a conglomeration of veal cutlets, lima beans and oil, roast beef and tomato sauce, omelets, milk and vinegar, mustard and cheese, which he swallowed rapidly and in immense quantities, washing down the whole with huge drafts of coffee.

Rossini, the celebrated Italian composer of operatic music, had not been able to see his feet for six years ere his death. He has been described as a "hippopotamus in trousers," and yet his enormous bulk did not prevent him giving to the musical world such operatic treasures as "The Barber of Seville," "William Tell" and "La Gaz-za Ladra."

Jules Gabriel Janin, eminent as a French dramatic critic and a most prolific writer, would have broken down any twentieth century sofa on which he might have happened to sit. Then, take the passionate Alexandre Dumas, author of "The Three Musketeers," "Monte Cristo" and a host of other famous works.
He could eat three beefsteaks where any other man ate one.

The most fertile of all French romancers, Balzac, is said to have looked more like a hoghead than a man. Three ordinary persons stretching hands could hardly reach round his waist.—London Tit-Bits.

A Curious Boat.

According to a Chinese legend, there lived in Canton 200 years before Christ an artist named Lam Kao Pong, who won an immortal reputation owing to the fact that he was able to fashion out of a lean pod a boat, complete with rudder, sails, mast and all other necessary appurtenances. Moreover, on the exterior of the boat were engraved various maxims by Confucius. For this masterpiece, it is said, the Emperor Tai Fou paid him 1,000 taels.

No Change.

The dinner was very bad.
"Another new cook, eh?" said Mr. Dawson. "It is strange what a time we have with cooks. The Dixons have no such trouble. Dixon was telling me only yesterday that they have had the same cook for ten years."

"Yes, dear," said Mrs. Dawson sweetly, "and did he tell you who she is?"

"No. Who is she?"
"His wife."—New York Times.

Ponies and Horses.

I have been asked a great many times if ponies are really more intelligent than full sized horses.
They certainly appear to be. But the intelligence of any horse will develop under petting and human companionship, and there is no doubt that other horses, if given the same privileges that ponies enjoy and if their size admitted of their being handled and managed in the same way, would prove equally intelligent.—Onting.

Insects That Use Rubber.

When Para trees are tapped after the gum has run into receptacles and stiffened a species of large black ant is accustomed to cut out pieces of the rubber and carry them away. Bees also find uses for india rubber, and some species in South America actually cut the bark of trees that produce resinous substances in order to cause a flow of the sap. The gum is employed by the bees as a ready made wax for their nests.

A Laughing Face.

How it blossoms the street, a face laughing all to itself! As one sees it the corners of his mouth begin to twitch, too, with God's good gift.
Eyes light, stranger's greet knowingly, hearts soften, spirits rise, breeches brighten, and the world grows friendly within the circle of the jerry echo.—William O'Connell.
