SOLILOQUY AT SHADOW LAWN.

Where are they gone, the old familiar faces?
I had a friend—McCombs, but he left me, Left me slowly but surely, when I did not need him.
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces!

Once I had Bryan; he was my friend In my hours of struggling in that great convention.
But now he's gone. Left me with "God bless you!"
Upon his lips. Gone, are the old familiar faces.

I had a friend; a truer friend had no man.
Like an ingrate, I wounded my friend acutely;
And he, good Colonel Harvey, left me.
Left me
To muse on the old familiar faces!

At my right hand sat my friend Who was the strong arm of my Administration—Garrison, upright and honest—but he too has left me; Left me, when I deceived him—gone are the old familiar faces!

At Shadow Lawn, where new friends swarm around me, Earth seems a desert I am bound to traverse,
Seeking to find the friends who've
left me;
But all, all are gone—the old familiar faces!

Editorial Comments

If the Democratic leader who advocates putting dyes on the free list to encourage the industry were a surgeon his method of setting a broken limb would be to amputate the patient's leg at the neck.

Optimism is what makes the Democratic party, which has fooled some of the people only three times in fifty years, and has never yet fooled all of the people some of the time, think that it can now fool all of the people all of the time.

President Wilson hasn't been able to be on the stump or up one.

If the paper shortage becomes much more serious the first thing we know the machinery of the State Department will be coming to an abrupt stop.

Then, too, according to the Democratic campaign book that among the more important enactments of the Wilson Administration may be mentioned Magna Charta and the Ten Commandments.

Secretary Redfield converses glibly in terms of billions until it comes time to make a campaign contribution when it is disclosed that all he really knows about mathematics is $100.

Everything has gone up under Wilson except the price of dead Americans.

Senator Jimham Lewis has purchased a new volume of "Unfamiliar Quotations" and expects to be able any day now to give us the classical derivation of "pitiless publicity" and "strict accountability" in the original Babylonian.

Add famous sayings of history: "I will surrender on this line if it takes all summer!"

The Democratic revenue bill, as completed, is regarded as so perfect that the chances are that the taxpayers of New York, Massachusetts and Illinois will be able to build 3,000 more miles of good roads in Alabama next year.

Mr. Hughes is talking to the women of the land in the homely language of the fireside and we expect to witness an impressive rallying of the sex on the first ironing day after the first wash day in November.

WILSON STRIKES WHEN THE IRON IS COLD.

President Wilson refused to speak in Independence Hall on the one hundred and twenty-eighth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence in that hall, and he so refused because inasmuch as over one hundred of our men, women and children had just been murdered on the high seas he regarded it as "the very moment when he would not care to arouse the sentiment of patriotism." Mr. Wilson has a positive genius for striking when the iron is cold and fearing to strike when the iron is hot. If one hundred and twenty-eight years ago Washington and Jefferson, and the other men who signed the Declaration of Independence had felt the same way about patriotism, and the same way about fighting as Mr. Wilson does, we would never have had a country. Had Lincoln felt the same way, there would be no such thing as the American Republic now in existence.— From the Speech of Colonel Roosevelt at Battle Creek, Michigan, in Behalf of Mr. Hughea.

Scio Takes First Prize

The Scio school captured first prize at the Industrial School Fair held at Albany in connection with the Round-Up. This is a signal honor in the face of keen competition from all other parts of the county.

In Domestic Science the Scio school took second prize, which speaks highly for this department, in competition with Albany, Lebanon, Brownsville and Harrisburg.

Nobody Works These Days

How much more time have you in which to succeed? Although there have been many notable exceptions, the average man determines his ultimate position in the world by his activities between the ages of 25 and 50.
Twenty-five years seem plenty of time, especially during the first half. But is it?

John Neeley hands the Democrat a statement whereby he proves that nobody works. Here is the way it is figured out.

Each year has 365 days. You sleep eight hours each day, which equals 122 days. This leaves 243 days. You rest eight hours each day, which also equals 122 days. This leaves 121 days. There are 52 Sundays that you do not work, or 52 days. This leaves 69 days. You have one-half day off each Saturday, or 25 days, which leaves 43 days. You have one and one-half hours off for lunch each day, or 28 days, which leaves 15 days. You get 14 days vacation in the year. This leaves one day, and this being the Fourth of July, we close on that day, so you've done no work at all.—Albany Democrat.

ASHLAND PRESIDENT FAVORS PENDLETON

NEED OF EASTERN OREGON SCHOOL FULLY SHOWN BY B. F.
MULKEY, FORMER HEAD OF ASHLAND SCHOOL.

Portland, Ore.—The Honorable B. F.
Mulkey, ex-President of the Southern Oregon Normal School at Ashland, says, concerning the establishment of an additional Normal School at Pendleton: "I shall support the measure heartily for the reason that the present Normal School, though one of the best in the country, cannot be adequate to meet the needs of so large a state as Oregon. There is no institution that touches the masses of the people so closely as does the Normal School and the benefit derived from the taxes paid by the people of the state for the maintenance of such schools returns directly to the man and woman who paid the taxes and is conferred directly upon them and their children. The expense of maintaining a good Normal School in Eastern Oregon to a tax-pay-er on an assessed valuation of $4000.00 would each year be under the cost of a good Havana cigar. I sincerely hope that the coming election will grant to the people of Eastern Oregon the relief they seek in a Normal School."

BUSINESSMEN ARE FOR NEW NORMAL

PORTLAND CHAMBER OF COM-MERCE STRONGLY ENDORSES BILL FOR SCHOOL TO BE LO-CATED AT PENDLETON.

Portland, Ore.—The Portland Chamber of Commerce, which stands at the head of the businessmen's organization of the state, recently endorsed the measure proposing a Normal School at Pendleton in a resolution, giving the following reasons:

"We believe that Eastern Oregon is reasonable in its demands that such a school be located east of the Cascade mountains, hence we recommend its location at Pendleton as the most logical for the following reasons:

"First, it is a city of some size, having an enrollment of over 1,000 grade pupils.

"Second, Pendleton is very accessible, having over twenty passenger trains each day from five directions.

"Third, its location is as near central as could be expected, making it easy of access at a moderate cost to the students.

"Fourth, it is our understanding that the citizens of Pendleton propose to donate a very favorable site for the school.

"Fifth, many other advantages are:
A good public library, several churches, pure water and a live, intelligent community that will take pride in the progress of the school."
