VOL. XX

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1916.

NO. 17

Possibly About You

For sale 15 ewe lambs if taken soon.—Densmore Wade Co.

Green beef hides are worth 14c per pound at the Sanitary Market.

Rev H B Her is conducting revival meetings in North Albany this week.

The News goes to press late this week as a result of an extra rush of work that came in about our usual time for printing, and inability to secure extra help.

G M Flook and family are expected here from Buxton the last of this week to spend the winter. They will take care of Leonard Gilkey's place while the latter family visits with relatives in California for a few months.

Services will be held at the Catholic church next Sunday at 11 a m. Father Henry will officiate and preach. The Sunday School class will meet after the services. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs J M Meiklejohn returned home Wednesday evening from a two weeks visit at lower Valley points. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs J C Simmons of Molalla, who will visit with her for a few days.

Miss Louise Svoboda of Scio returned home this morning after attending the wedding of her sister, Bessie here yesterday to V W Ryzner. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs E H Horský.—Tuesday's Albany Democrat.

James Compton died last Saturday after a short illness and the funeral was held Monday. He had been in failing health for several months. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the family in their hour of bereavement.

The Scio Dramatic Club will present "Pierre of the Plains" at the People's Theatre in Scio November 30. This play was given here three years ago by the Waltemeyer & O'Conner Co, and proved so popular that the demand for a return engagement was so insistent that the Club decided to reproduce it.

James Craft who was in town on business Wednesday, asked the News to state that the Good Roads Association which steps were taken to organize at Albany last Friday, was not endorsed by the Farmers Union as an organization, although many prominent members of the union are identified with the movement individually. An extended account of this meeting was published in the Albany Herald last Friday in which it was stated that the Farmers Union among other organizations was back of the movement.

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION EXPIRES on the date stamped in the space below. To those who pay promptly in advance the subscription price is $1.00 per year. The price is $1.25 if paid during year. The paper is not sent to subscribers who are more than one year in arrears.

Whazzat?

Just as a matter of information for the Santiam News, we note that E C Peery, candidate for the legislature, had the largest vote of any legislative candidate in North and South Scio precincts combined. It is therefore evident that he ran ahead of his ticket, a statement in the News of some weeks ago to the contrary, notwithstanding.—Scio Tribune.

It appears that the Tribune editor, or whoever wrote the above, has about as little regard for the truth as he has for the Santiam News. Wilson received 140 votes in North Scio and Mr Peery 109, while in South Scio Wilson secured 131 and Peery 77.

Hog, Cattle and Sheep Raisers

Having sold our produce business in Scio to Mr O R Turner, we are now in position to devote our entire time to the buying of live stock.

If at any time you have any stuff ready call us up and we will call on you and make you a price on it. We will handle hogs on a margin of 75c under Portland market. Our shipping points will be West Scio and Crabtree. Densmore-Wade Co.

For Sale—Two sows and 11 pigs for $35. Sanitary Market.

Elmo Sims' moved this week from the Fred Jones property to the Wm Reed place, formerly occupied by J F Kukaeka, which they recently bought.

Joe Oupor has a nicely decorated lamp this week caused by a stick of wood which he was splitting, jumping up to meet him.

Horse Buyers Coming

Horse buyers coming to buy horses and mares that weigh from 1200 pounds up; from four to nine years old. Bring in your horses and get the cash.

Will be at Scio Wednesday, November 15.

L. Glass.

Big Dance

A dance will be given, Saturday, November 18, by the ladies of the F. E. and C. U. of A. at the Richardson Gap T J S and Z C B J hall. Good music, good floor and a good time assured. Lunch will be served at midnight. Everybody cordially invited.
