

Stop, Look and Listen!

We have been contemplating a change for some time, but owing to circumstances have just completed the transfer on November 1st. The Densmore-Wade Co. is out of the business of the Produce house entirely.

Having just purchased the produce business, I will give you all that the markets will justify me in paying.

We are in the market for practically anything you have to sell, having an Hazelwood cream station working in conjunction with us in the same building.

Bring us your eggs, poultry, hides, veal, dressed pork, cas-cara bark, CREAM, etc.

Violating Postal Laws

The following has been received at the local postoffice from the Postmaster General: "It having been made to appear by evidence satisfactory to me that the National Mail Order Brokerage Exchange, at 520 Globe Building, Minnesota, is conducting a scheme for obtaining money through the mails by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, in violation of sections 3929 and 4041 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, and that communications addressed to this concern are unmailable within the meaning of section 4 of the act of March 2, 1889 (sec. 484, P. L. & R., 1913), all postmasters are hereby directed to withdraw from the mails all matter of any kind addressed to this concern and return the same to the sender where known, and where not known to send such matter to the division of Dead Letters for proper disposition. Wherever possible, postmasters should decline to receive such matter for mailing."

The scheme conducted under this name consists in the sending out of circular letters in which a silk petticoat $1.75 is promised to the addressee provided she will remit 10 cents to the concern and send five exact copies of the letter received by her to five of her acquaintances. The promoters of the scheme have left Minneapolis and can not be located, and many thousands of letters are now being received at the post office at Minneapolis for this concern which can not be delivered and are being treated in accordance with the provisions of a fraud order issued against the National Mail Order Brokerage Exchange on the 28th instant.

We all wish Aunt Nancy many more happy birthdays. She received several gifts and cards.

News items are a little scarce this week, and as Chatter Box is on the move, please excuse barks and blunders.

Dellis Westenhause spent the latter part of the week with his sister, Mrs John Neal of Jordan.

Isaac Campbell and wife and Haman Shelton Jr motored over from Albany Friday to help celebrate Mrs Campbell's grandmother's birthday. They found only one place where the Ford could not haul them.

CHATTER BOX

Good Roads

When a very amiable gentleman steps into his car or climbs into a buggy and takes a drive out into the country and gets stuck in the mud of a bad road, he immediately calls down something besides blessings upon the heads of the people responsible for such conditions.

It never enters his head that perhaps he himself is one of those people. But he is.

He is one of them because he has not done his part toward compelling our officials to see that the roads are in proper condition. He has not raised his voice in behalf of better country roads, or if he has it has been so weak and half hearted that it has neither been heard nor heeded.

It is the duty and it should be the pleasure of every citizen to talk and work for better country roads, for better roads mean more prosperous conditions generally. The man in town is just as much interested in the condition of roads as the farmer, for when roads are bad and the marketing of crops is difficult and expensive the farmer is less prosperous, and this in turn is detrimental to the best interests of the man in town.

This is an era of road building, and the time is ripe for us to rise to the occasion and look to the condition of our own roads.

We as a people are not paupers and there is no occasion for poor roads in this community. That such roads do exist is simply an evidence that we as citizens are not alive to our opportunities or our duty, and that so long as we sleep we may expect our officials to share our slumbers.

While we are simply jogging along others in other communities are building better roads and reaping the financial results.

Are we to be satisfied with being the tail of the cow?
Boost for good roads and whoop up the boosting!

Her Son Subject to Croup

"My son Edwin is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irvin, New Kensington, Pa. "I put in many sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief." Obtainable everywhere.
