

The Santiam News.

VOL. XX

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1916.

NO. 21

Possibly About You

Special attention given to teachers orders of Xmas candy.
--J S Sticha.

J D Densmore will leave here Sunday with a carload of dairy cows for Montana points.

When renewing your subscription to the News, don't forget to remind us of the big magazine offer.

Miss Grace Davis of Salem was a Thanksgiving visitor here at the home of Dr and Mrs E H Hobson.

Mr and Mrs Jefferson Myers of Portland spent Thanksgiving here at the home of the former's brother, E D Myers.

We make a specialty of Friendship, Engagement and Wedding rings--F M French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany.

Mr and Mrs Ralph Gill of Portland and Dr John Gill and family of Lebanon spent Thanksgiving here at the home of their parents, Mr and Mrs M C Gill.

Jim Ferrell of Salem who was summoned as a witness before the grand jury came over from Albany Thursday and visited with his friends Dean and Rolla Morris.

The grand jury last week returned a not true bill against A E Edwards, accused of setting fire to his dwelling in Scio. A not true bill was also returned in the case of Frank Dobrkovsky, accused of starving and beating his family.

BRACELET WATCHES never were so popular with the ladies as they are at the present. We are showing a large variety of styles and have some attractive bargains. Come and see our wonderful display of Christmas gifts.--F M French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany.

Dr Turner, formerly of Lowe & Turner, the well known eye specialist of Portland will be in Scio again Thursday, December 14, at Hotel Scio. Headaches relieved, cross eyes straightened, satisfaction guaranteed. You could not make a more appropriate Christmas present than to have your father's, mother's, sister's or brother's eyes examined by a specialist of experience and standing and if needed, present them with an up to date pair of glasses which will be durable and lasting and at the same time preserve their eyesight, which is the most precious sense they have. Dr Turner makes no charge for consultation or examination and most positively will not recommend glasses if they are not needed. You can order them and have them delivered at Christmas time if desired. Consult him. Don't forget the date.

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION EXPIRES on the date stamped in the space below. To those who pay promptly in advance the subscription price is $1.00 per year. The price is $1.25 if paid during year. The paper is not sent to subscribers who are more than one year in arrears.

FOURTEEN SHOPPING DAYS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

Chicken Pie Supper

A chicken pie supper will be given by the ladies of Scio in the domestic science room of the school building tomorrow, Friday, evening from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. half of the proceeds to go to help build the play shed on the school grounds and half for the benefit of the piano at the Federated church. In addition to the pie, all the "fixings" that go along with a good meal will also be very much in evidence and if that is not sufficient inducement, the Scio Orchestra will discourse sweet strains to aid digestion during the course of the meal. The price has been put within the reach of all, 25c to either large or small appetites. Come out and tickle your palate and help in a good cause.

Look Out!

Something is going to happen. Fred T Bilyeu and N I Morrison are going to give all school children and owners of Ford cars, who bought them of Mr Bilyeu, and their families, or any one leaving their order with Mr Bilyeu on or before December 23, a free ticket to an educational moving picture show on Saturday, December 23. School children will only be required to call at Morrison's Hardware Store and get a ticket. The afternoon performance will be exclusively for out of town people and the evening for people of Scio and those living close in. All others, or grown ups, will be required to make some kind of a purchase at Morrison's hardware store and at the same time get a discount of 10 per cent on all purchases of $1.00 or over from my regular retail prices. Come in early and pick out your rockers, rugs, or anything you may need for Christmas, and place your orders early so we can have them here for you on that date. Remember, everything except nails, wire and wire goods will be sold at 10 per cent off for cash. All paying their accounts on that date will receive a ticket. The show will be continuous in the afternoon after 1 p.m.

Coming in a short time--A comedy-drama for the benefit of the play shed. Watch for date and particulars.

Oregon News Notes

Oregon Development News in Line of Industries, Payrolls, and Products of Labor and Enterprise.

Belfast linen manufacturer says flax raising is ideal industry for Oregon.

Portland--William Cornfoot has contracts for construction of two steel steamers of 3300 tons capacity secured through A O Anderson & Co.

Why should not institutions of higher learning supplement the course in political economy with one in rigid economy?--Exchange

Booth-Kelly Co lets contract for 7,000,000 feet logs.

School board lets contract for $26,000 school at Paisley.

Reports say Newport will have sardine cannery.

Heavier loading of equipment to relieve the freight car shortage is urged as one of the most effective methods of relief by General Agent J W McClymonds of the Pacific Fruit Express Company.

Fix the state constitution so it will not be a toy to be played with by people who have pretty ideas and want to see how they would work.

Oregon City contributes $8,000 towards building $16,000 armory.

Banker rents 3 sections land in Umatilla county at $14 an acre.

Union Pacific lines in Oregon granting wage increases.

Work on California, Oregon and Eastern to start early in spring.

Cottage Grove Leader--The initiative can no longer be used to put over harmful measures of any kind. To the newspapers belongs the larger part of the credit for waking the voters up to the necessity of voting upon the amendments and voting intelligently.

The election is over and the people feel relieved. They hope that the successful politicians in either party will make it their business to encourage industry and the investment of capital.

Coquille--Oregon Power Co to build power line from Marshfield to cost $16,000.

Hides that sold in Chicago in September for 22 cents now sell for 32 cts.

Ashland voted down two charter amendments increasing taxes.

Burns to Crane railroad to be built by local company.

Standard Oil Co will build service station at Redmond.

Oregon City taxpayers cut the budget down to the income of 1917.

Blackley to erect a large union grade school.

Laurelhurst to have $40,000 club house.

It will take something besides "industrial center" real estate deals to establish industries in Oregon. There must be a let-up in laws that cripple industries.

Congress will soon have another chance to enact workable legislation for the development

Hello Bill!

Next Thursday evening, Dec. 14, the Rebekah Lodge under the direction of Jack Waltemeyer will put on a screaming farce comedy at the Peoples Theatre, under the above title. A big dance after the show at the Wesely hall. Watch for hand bills.

C. E. Benefit

There will be a musical program at the Federated church on Wednesday evening, December 13, for the benefit of the Young People's C E Society. Proceeds to go toward the new piano lately purchased for the church. A general admission of 15c will be charged. Come out and spend an enjoyable evening and help a worthy cause.

Attention Ford Owners

On the afternoon and evening of December 23, 1916 there will be a FREE picture show at the People's Theatre. Five or six reels in all. Three reels will show the manufacture of Ford autos at the Detroit, Michigan, factory, and we will also show one Ford weekly, besides two reels furnished by N I Morrison, all of which will be interesting and along an educational line. Don't fail to see this free show.

All those who have bought cars from Fred T Bilyeu will be furnished with a ticket. Those who bought cars in 1915 and prior to that date, look up your motor number and bring it in. For further particulars see ad in another column of this issue.

Show given by Fred T Bilyeu and N I Morrison.

In the ad of Densmore-Wade last week the word furnish was used instead of finish. The paragraph in question should have read, "You finish the hogs and we will do the rest."

of our waterpowers. It is to be hoped another two years will not be wasted trying to pass a law permitting development of this great industry.

Milddale will get a flouring mill of 25-barrel a day capacity.

First piling driven on million dollar postoffice at Portland.

Dallas has reduced tax levy 4.4 mills below last year.

Monroe, Wis, timber company to build logging road on Siuslaw.

McMinnville product firms are promoting fruit cannery.

Sheridan backing movement for $30,000 hard surface road.

Albany Democrat tells of growth of peppermint raising in Linn county and describes this new industry for farmers of valley as becoming very profitable. Article also says that Albany is likely to become peppermint center of the world.

Oregon speakership fight raises issue of tax reduction and more factories.

That Girl's Eellow.

This is the subject of an instructive and humorous lecture that will be delivered tomorrow, Friday, evening at 7:30 o'clock at the school auditorium, by George Harrison Feese. The speaker comes highly recommended and has scores of letters from prominent educators, who speak in the highest terms of his lecture. The admission will be 15c and 25c and half of the proceeds will go to help build the play shed on the school grounds. In addition to the lecture, the Scio orchestra will be on hand and render several selections.

City Officers Chosen

The city election last Monday passed off very quietly here, the following being elected to fill the various offices:

Mayor, F T Thayer; Recorder, J S Sticha; Treasurer, Roy V Shelton; Marshal, W A Cross; Councilmen, W E Arnold, F T Bilyeu, W J Chromy, R M Cain, J F Oupor, J M Lindley and N I Morrison.

Leap Year Dance

A dance, which will be in charge of the ladies, will be given by the Z C B J and T J S lodges, at the Richardson Gap hall, Saturday evening, December 16. Good floor, good music, and supper at midnight. Admission: ladies 50c, gents 25c. Everybody come and have a good time.

1000 pounds Xmas candy just arrived at Sticha's.

H S Johnston went to Albany on business Monday, returning Tuesday.

Mrs F T Bilyeu visited at Monmouth a few days last week with Miss Mamie Jackson.

Miss Dolly Daley came over from Lebanon to eat Thanksgiving dinner at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs Ed Daley.

LA VALLIERS and neck chains command the attention of all well dressed ladies. Our stock never was so complete for the holiday trade as it is just now. We have solid gold ones from $3.00 up.--F M French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany.

Services both morning and evening at the Federated church next Sunday. Subject for the evening service, "The Young Man." There will be special music at this service.

Delbert Long, Kenneth White and Victor Lyon went to Corvallis last Friday as delegates from here to the Boys Conference of the Y M C A, which convened there Friday, Saturday and Sunday. There were over 300 boys in attendance and a fine time is reported by the Scio delegation.