Possibly About You

J S Warwick is on the sick list this week.

H S Johnston was a Stayton visitor Wednesday.

A complete line of Xmas post cards now on display at Sticha's.

Green beef hides are worth 16c per pound at the Sanitary Market.

Mr and Mrs Bob DeVaney of Albany were Scio visitors last Thursday.

Services will be held at the Catholic church next Sunday at 9 a. m. Father Henry will officiate and preach. The public is cordially invited.

Mr and Mrs Jack Waltemeyer moved to Stayton last Saturday, where he has bought both picture shows and merged them into one. Their many Scio friends regret to see them leave here, but at the same time wish them the best of luck in their new location. As they are not very far away, we will expect to see them in Scio occasionally. Later—As they have been unable to get a house in Stayton to suit them, Mr and Mrs Waltemeyer have not moved yet.

"Pierre of the Plains" played to standing room here last Thursday evening. It is a strong bill, and Jack Waltemeyer as Pierre simply can't be beat. What is almost as important, also, is the fact that his support was excellent, the members of the Scio Dramatic Club playing like old veterans at the game. They presented the same bill at Stayton Saturday evening to a good house.

Miss Alice Prill, domestic science teacher in the Scio school is filling a popular demand these days by furnishing a cup of cocoa or a bowl of soup for one cent during the noon hour to the pupils who bring their lunch to school. Miss Prill tried the scheme for an experiment about two weeks ago, and it has proven so popular that it is now a fixed institution.

C. E. Notes

The Y. P. S. C. E. was well attended Sunday evening, when the subject, "Consecration of business life" was discussed, with Miss Berryman as leader.

Come out next Sunday and enjoy a pleasant hour with the C. E.'s.

Don't forget the musical entertainment to be rendered at the church Wednesday evening, December 13.

Look carefully over the advertisements in the News this week. Several changes and new ads will be found, and they are all well worth reading.

Mr and Mrs Jas Sewell and Miss Evelyn Gordon of Hillsboro were Thanksgiving visitors here at the O V White home. Mrs Sewell and Miss Gordon being sister and niece, respectively, of Mrs White.

Mrs A W Hagey left for Ortling, Wash, last Sunday morning in response to a telegram received Saturday evening announcing the death of her father John Wadkins. Deceased was well along toward 80 years of age and died suddenly from heart failure. Mrs Hagey will remain for a few days with her mother, who is also well along in years.

FORD

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Three strong reasons urge you to buy a Ford car: First, because of its record of satisfactory service to more than fifteen hundred thousand owners; Second, because of the reliability of the Company which makes it; Third, because of its large radiator and enclosed fan, streamline hood, crown fenders front and rear, black finish, nickel trimmings. It is most attractive in appearance. To these must be added its wonderful economy in operation and maintenance, likewise the fact that by reason of its simplicity in construction anyone can operate and care for it. Nine thousand Ford agents make Ford service as universal as the car. Touring Car $360, Runabout $345, Coupelet $505, Town Car $595, Sedan $645; f. o. b. Detroit.

The above prices are guaranteed against any drop before Aug. 1, 1917 but not against an advance in price.

Place your orders now for Spring delivery.
