Dr A G Prill received the sad news the last of the week of the death of his sister Mrs H L Van Slyke at Springville, N Y on Dec 4. She was the mother of Miss Nellie Van Slyke who taught in the Scio high school a few years ago, and who is also very low with tuberculosis.

The Albany High School football team has been accorded the title of champions of Oregon by the Jefferson High School of Portland, winners of the interstate scholastic championship at the state metropolis. The Jefferson team decided to forfeit the championship following a 38 to 0 drubbing at the hands of Aberdeen, Washington rather than take another from the Albany eleven.

John Shimaneck, J H Kelly and T M Holt were delegates from their respective locals to the state Farmers Union convention which was held at McMinnville Dec 5 to 7. Mr Shimaneck informs the News that over 125 delegates were present as well as about 75 visiting members. Gov Withycombe was there one day and delivered an address. The grange was also represented. Enthusiastic sessions were held and many things discussed, including co-operative marketing of crops.

Poultry Show at Albany

Albany, Or., Dec. 14—Not only the high price of eggs, but the high price of poultry is receiving the attention of Linn county people this week as a result of the Central Willamette Valley Poultry show which is in session in the Armory here, having opened Wednesday to continue until Saturday night. There are all breeds of poultry in the contest for the seventeen silver cups and cash prizes that are being offered, and are extremely close.

Under the direction of Harry Collier of Tacoma, Wash, the individual card system of judging is being used, the strong and weak points of each fowl being recorded and explained so that the poultrymen may be in a position to develop a better breed for next year.

Hello Bill tonight.

Mrs E H Hobson is visiting in Stayton this week with the Doctor's parents, Mr and Mrs W H Hobson.

The Stayton State Bank bought the Titus farm of 120 acres, which was sold at sheriff's sale at Albany last Saturday. The price paid was $9,070.00.

The triangular debating team will hold a public debate at the school auditorium Friday evening December 22, at 7:30. The Lebanon team will meet them and the subject will be, "Resolved that Oregon should adopt the health insurance law as outlined by the American Insurance Commission. Admission 15c."

Fine Entertainment

The chicken pie supper at the high school on Friday evening was a delightful success from every viewpoint. The friends of the school rallied in large numbers and gave their approval of the fine quality of the pie and the chicken too. The ladies are certainly to be congratulated for the fine success of the affair and the goodly sum of money turned in on the play shed and the piano.

The lecture in the assembly hall following the supper, by Dr Feese of Portland, was a rare gem of thought and eloquence. It was true to life and all who heard it gained a clearer and a truer insight into the real character of the boy. The lecture was full of the highest form of instruction, the best of philosophy and the richest of wit and human pathos. Dr Feese made a place for himself in the hearts of the people of Scio.

Basketball Friday Evening

The high school basketball team has bills out announcing a game at the Wesley hall for this coming Friday evening. It was thought after the bills were distributed that the game would have to be postponed, but satisfactory arrangements were made and the game will be played as scheduled.
