SCHOOL NOTES

Several of the girls are out of High School on account of pink eye.

Kenneth White returned to school after several days illness.

A change of seats took place Tuesday, several getting front seats. Looks as if there were some bad ones in H S.

Gail Jones returned from the military barracks to visit, a short time with friends and relatives.

The boys are practicing for the field meet with Jefferson H S to be held here in Scio on May day or shortly after. They figure on showing the Jefferson boys the time of their life.

Davis Leininger, "America's Boy Harpist" is to be at the Scio high school auditorium Monday, April 30. He has a wide reputation of being an excellent musician and a wizard of the harp.
It is a musical treat. Everybody come.

Errol Sims was a high school visitor Wednesday. Who do you suppose he came to see?

Practically all the pupils in the school of Findlay, Ohio, have taken and tried earnestly to live up to the following pledge, which would be a good one for our school as well:

I want to help make our town a better place in which to live and to this end I promise to comply with the following rules to the best of my ability:

1 I will help to clean up yards, streets and alleys.

2 I will plant flower seeds, bulbs, vines, shrubbery, etc.

3 I will help make garden and keep the lawn in good condition.

4 I promise not to deface fences or buildings; neither will I scatter paper or rubbish in public places.

5 I will not spit upon the floor of any building or on the sidewalks.

6 I will try to influence others to help keep our town clean.

7 I will protect birds and animals and all property belonging to others.

8 I will promise to be a true, loyal citizen.

I may not be able to do all these things, but I will do as much as I can to help our town and community.

The first week in May is clean up week in Oregon.

Safe Medicine for Children.

"Is it safe?" is the first question to be considered when buying cough medicine for children. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has long been a favorite with mothers of young children as it contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. It is pleasant to take, too, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. This remedy is most effectual in relieving coughs, colds and croup. Obtainable everywhere.

J. M. and H. M. HAWKINS
ALBANY, OREGON

As a Jritic Saw Browning.

There was marked vulgarity about Browning, particularly in his accent and in the tone of his voice and a certain indescribable savor of sycophancy of a man eager to be of a grade to which he did not belong, but the poet was there—the poet's keen eye, the poet's heart, obvious in his remarks and descriptions. — Memoirs of John Churton Collins.

A Diplomatic Decision.

Two ladies contending for precedence at the court of Charles V. appealed to the monarch, who decided that the elder should go first.
Disputes of that character never occurred thereafter.

Why Constipation Injures.

The bowels are the natural sewerage system of the body. When they become obstructed by constipation a part of the poisonous matter which they should carry off is absorbed into the system, making you feel dull and stupid, and interfering with the digestion and assimilation of food. This condition is quickly relieved by Chamberlain's Tablets. Obtainable everywhere.
